INTERNAL RISK FACTORS

- 1. We are heavily dependent on the performance of the automotive sector in India, particularly the market for four-wheelers in India. Any adverse changes in the conditions affecting these markets can adversely impact our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our business is heavily dependent on the performance of the automotive sector in India, particularly the four-wheelers market. our products portfolio has been and continues to be concentrated on providing components for four -wheelers manufacturers in India. and intend to continue focusing on manufacturing products in this region and segment as part of our growth strategy. We will therefore be exposed to fluctuations in the performance of the automotive market in

India

In the event of a decrease in demand for four-wheelers in India, or any developments that make the sale of components in the four-wheeler market in India less economically beneficial, we may experience more pronounced effects on our business, results of operations and financial condition than if we had further diversified our portfolio across different segments of the automotive components market.

The automotive market in India may perform differently, and be subject to market and regulatory developments that are dissimilar to the automotive markets in other parts of the world. We cannot assure you that the demand for our products in India will grow, or will not decrease, in the future. The automotive market is affected by, among others, changes in government policies, economic conditions, demographic trends, employment and income levels and interest rates, which may negatively affect the demand for and the valuation of our products. These and other factors may negatively contribute to changes in the prices of and demand for our products in India and may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

For further details of our Business, please refer chapter titled “Our Business” beginning on Page 105 of Prospectus.

2. We are dependent on the performance of the non-automotive, wind power, construction & instrumentation sector in India, any adverse changes in the conditions affecting these markets can adversely impact our business, results of operations and financial condition.

In addition to our active engagement in the automotive sector, our company is involved in diverse industries such as non-automotive, wind power, construction, and instrumentation. In the event of a decline in demand within any of these sectors or if developments arise that render the sale of components in the Indian market less economically advantageous, our business may be more significantly impacted.

In the event of a decrease in demand of said sectors, or any developments that make the sale of components in the said market in India less economically beneficial, we may experience more pronounced effects on our business, results of operations and financial condition than if we had further diversified our portfolio across different segments of the non-automotive, wind power, construction & instrumentation sector market.

These and other factors may negatively contribute to changes in the prices of and demand for our products in India and may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

For further details of our Business, please refer chapter titled “Our Business” beginning on Page 101 of Prospectus.

3. An increase in the cost of or a shortfall in the availability of raw materials could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Production quantity and cost of our products are dependent on our ability to source raw materials at acceptable prices, and maintain a stable and sufficient supply of our major raw materials. Our key raw materials is different grades of aluminum ingots. There can be no assurance that we will be able to procure all of our future raw material requirements at commercially viable prices.

Furthermore, in the event that such suppliers discontinue their supply to us or if we are unable to source quality raw material from other suppliers at competitive prices, we may not be able to meet our production and sales. Interruption of, or a shortage in the supply of, raw material may result in our inability to operate our production facilities at optimal capacities or at all, leading to a decline in production and sales. An inability to procure sufficient quality raw material at reasonable cost, or an inability to pass on any additional cost incurred on purchase of raw materials to our customers, may adversely affect our operations and financial conditions.

4. We are heavily dependent on certain suppliers for procurements of raw materials. Any disruption of supply from such entities may affect our business operation

We procure aluminium alloy ingots of following grades ADC 12, LM6, LM24, LM 25 and K14, from certain suppliers and use them as per their requirements. Percentage of the top ten suppliers of the company for seven-month period ended October 31, 2023 and FY 2023, 2022, 2021 are 90.69%, 90.44%, 84.69% and 66.83%.

Any delays, disruptions, or failures in the supply of raw materials from these entities may significantly impact our operations. Consequently, we may face the risk of losing customers and incurring liabilities for failure to fulfill orders, which could potentially have a material adverse effect on our business and financial condition.

5. Our revenues are highly dependent on our operations in geographical region of state of Tamil Nadu. Any adverse development affecting our operations in this region could have an adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

we derive a large portion of our revenue from state of Tamil Nadu. State of Tamil Nadu contribute 84.80%, 81.94%, 85.18%, 69.78% and 69.24% of our total revenue for seven-month period ended October 31, 2023, four-month period ended July 31, 2023 and financial year ended on March 31, 2023, 2022 and 2021, respectively. If there is change in policy by Government of Tamil Nadu regarding automotive industry or economic conditions of State of Tamil Nadu become volatile or uncertain or the conditions in the financial market were to deteriorate, or if there are any changes in laws applicable to our industry or if any restrictive conditions are imposed on us or our business, there will be a severe impact on the financial condition of our business. Further, the ultimate customers located in this geography may reduce or postpone their spending significantly which would adversely affect our operations and financial conditions.

6. Our company completed its conversion from a Partnership firm to a public limited company on June 12, 2023. However, the accounts of the partnership firm were subsequently closed on July 31, 2023.

Our company was formed by conversion of a Partnership firm viz M/s Thaa Casting, pursuant to the provisions under Chapter XXI Part I of the Companies Act, 2013 on June 12, 2013, the date of issue of certificate of incorporation by the Registrar of Companies. as a partnership firm, the company was in existence prior to its deemed date of incorporation. Accordingly, there is no change in the nature of the business of the company. However, upon conversion of its status from a partnership firm into a public limited company under the companies Act, 2013, the provisions of the companies act 2013 and the rules made thereunder became applicable to the company. As there are a number of registrations and licenses obtained in the name of the erstwhile partnership firm, there was need to substitute the name of the company in the place of the partnership firm and also obtaining re-registration in the company name. The procedural formalities involved in this took time resulting in certain names continued in the name of the erstwhile partnership firm even though conversion of partnership firm was deemed to be completed in June 12, 2023. This also resulted in the extension of deemed date of closure of the erstwhile partnership firm to 31/07/2023.

While the company was operating as partnership firm before its conversion into a public limited company, the financial statements till the date of conversion was prepared as per the accounting standards applicable to partnership firm. However, upon the conversion of partnership firm into a public limited company on June 12, 2023 and the consequent applicability of the provisions of the companies act 2013, it became necessary to prepare the financial statements as per the applicable provisions of the companies act, 2013. Accordingly, the Board of the company has fixed the first financial year of the company from the date of incorporation of the company i.e., from June 12, 2023 to March 31, 2024 and the second and subsequent financial years of the company has been fixed as the period from 01st day of April to 31st day of March of each year. Accordingly, the first financial statements of the company were prepared for the period from June 12, 2023.

7. We depend on third parties for the supply of raw materials and delivery of products and such providers could fail to meet their obligations, which may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We are dependent on third party suppliers for our raw materials. Discontinuation of production by these suppliers or a failure of these suppliers to adhere to the delivery schedule or the required quality could hamper our production schedule and therefore affect our business and results of operations. This dependence may also adversely affect the availability of key materials at reasonable prices thus affecting our margins and may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. There can be no assurance that strong demand, capacity limitations or other problems experienced by our suppliers will not result in occasional shortages or delays in their supply of raw materials. If we were to experience a significant or prolonged shortage of raw materials from any of our suppliers, and we cannot procure the raw materials from other sources, we would be unable to meet our production schedules for some of our key products and to deliver such products to our customers in timely fashion, which would adversely affect our sales, margins and customer relations.

We cannot assure you that a particular supplier will continue to supply the required components or raw materials to us in the future. Any change in the supplying pattern of our raw materials can adversely affect our business and profits.

We use third parties for the supply of our raw materials Transportation strikes have in the past and could in the future have an adverse effect on our supplies and deliveries to and from particular plants on a timely and cost-efficient basis. An increase in freight costs or the unavailability of adequate port and shipping infrastructure for transportation of our products to our markets may have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

Further, the automotive industry has experienced significant volatility with respect to raw materials prices in the recent past, primarily in ferrous and non-ferrous metals. Historically, as a practice, we have passed the increase in cost of metals, especially aluminium and steel, onto our customers. However, our cash flows may still be adversely affected because of any gap in time between the date of procurement of those primary raw materials and date on which we can reset the component prices for our customers, to account for the increase in the prices of such raw materials. Our need to maintain a continued supply of raw materials may make it difficult to resist price increases and surcharges imposed by our suppliers, which may have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

8. We are highly dependent on our management team and certain management personnel, Any loss of such team members or the inability to attract or retain research and development personnel may materially adversely affect our business performance and research and development efforts.

Our business and the implementation of our strategy is dependent upon our management team, who oversee our day-to-day operations, strategy and growth of our business. If one or more members of such management team are unable or unwilling to continue in their present positions, such persons would be difficult to replace and our business, prospects and results of operations could be materially adversely affected.

In addition, our success in expanding our business will also depend, in part, on our ability to attract, retain and motivate mid-to-senior management personnel. In particular, we are investing significantly in our research and development capabilities in order to support our growth and business strategy, which includes hiring and retaining dedicated personnel for our research and development team. Our failure to successfully manage our personnel needs could adversely affect our business prospects and results of operations. These risks could be heightened to the extent we invest in businesses or geographical regions in which we have limited experience. If we are not able to address these risks, our business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially adversely affected.

9. Our failure to identify and understand evolving industry trends and preferences and to develop new products to meet our customers' demands may materially adversely affect our business.

Changes in consumer preferences, regulatory or industry requirements or in competitive technologies may render certain of our products obsolete or less attractive. Our ability to anticipate changes in technology and regulatory standards and to successfully develop and introduce new and enhanced products on a timely basis is a significant factor in our ability to remain competitive. However, there can be no assurance that we will be able to secure the necessary technological knowledge, through technical assistance agreements or otherwise, that will allow us to develop our product portfolio in this manner.

If we are unable to obtain such knowledge in a timely manner, or at all, we may be unable to effectively implement our strategies, and our business and results of operations may be adversely affected. Moreover, we cannot assure you that we will be able to achieve the technological advances that may be necessary for us to remain competitive or that certain of our products will not become obsolete.

We are also subject to the risks generally associated with new product introductions and applications, including lack of market acceptance, delays in product development and failure of products to operate properly.

To compete effectively in the automotive components industry, we must be able to develop and produce new products to meet our customers' demand in a timely manner. We cannot assure you, however, that we will be able to install and commission the equipment needed to produce products for our customers' new product programs in time for the start of production, or that the transitioning of our manufacturing facilities and resources to full production under new product programs will not impact production rates or other operational efficiency measures at our facilities. As a result, we may incur and have in the past incurred capital expenditures to develop products to meet customer demands and those demands may be and have in the past been delayed at the customer end due to delays in product launches.

Our failure to successfully develop and produce new products, or a failure by our customers to successfully launch new programs, could materially adversely affect our results of operations.

10. Any slowdown or work stoppages at our project sites may have effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations

Our projects are subject to various operational risks including, among various factors, the breakdown or failure of equipment, delay in shutdown of existing lines or processes, labour disputes, natural disasters, accidents and the need to comply with applicable legal and regulatory requirements. The occurrence of any of these factors could significantly affect our results of operations and financial condition. Any disruption in our operations due to disputes or other issues with our employees or contract labour work force may adversely affect our business and results of operations. Long periods of business disruption could result in a loss of customers. Although we take precautions to minimize the risk of any significant operational problems at our operation sites, there can be no assurance that we will not face such disruptions in the future.

Further till the date of filing of DRHP there have been no incidents within the company related to the breakdown or failure of equipment, delays in the shutdown of existing lines or processes, labor disputes, natural disasters, accidents, etc. For further details of our Business please refer chapter titled “Our Business” beginning on Page 101 of Prospectus.

11. Our company is currently facing outstanding demands under the Income Tax Act and TDS defaults.

In the assessment year 2018, our company received a notice from the income tax department indicating an outstanding demand of Rs 6,94,500, which remains unresolved as of the date of this Prospectus. It is noteworthy that our management team and auditors have not made any provision for this contingent liability.

Additionally, based on the latest information obtained from the TRACES Portal, there are TDS defaults amounting to Rs 32,13,145.51 that are still pending as of the date of this Prospectus. Similar to the outstanding demand, our management team and auditors have not created any provision for this contingent liability.

12. Our company completed its conversion from a Partnership firm to a public limited company on June 12, 2023. However, the accounts of the partnership firm were subsequently closed on July 31, 2023.

On June 12, 2023, our company underwent a conversion from a Partnership firm to a public limited company. Despite this transition, the business operations of the partnership persisted until July 31, 2023, as certain government approvals necessary for the change in the name from M/s Thaaai Casting to M/s Thaaai Casting Limited were not received promptly.

13. The discontinuation of, the loss of business with respect to, or a lack of commercial success of, a particular vehicle model for which we are a significant supplier could affect our business and results of operations.

We received our orders from many of automotive customers, these orders generally provide for the supply of a customer's requirements, which may range from one month to one year, for a particular vehicle model and assembly plant and are renewable for the same time periods, rather than for the purchase of a specific quantity of products. Therefore, the discontinuation of, loss of business with respect to, or a lack of commercial success of, a particular vehicle model, for which we are a significant supplier could reduce our sales and affect our estimates of anticipated sales, which could have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations. For example, we have in the past had to abandon a project to manufacture automotive components for a customer after we had already acquired land for the project and made other investments in the project. In such instances, our customers generally have no obligation to compensate us for any losses that we incur, and there is no guarantee that we will be able to recover any of our investments in such instance.

14. Our individual Promoters plays key role in our functioning and we heavily rely on their knowledge and experience in operating our business and therefore, it is critical for our business that our Promoter and Executive Directors remain associated with us. Our success also depends upon the services of our key managerial personnel and our ability to attract and retain key managerial personnel and our inability to attract them may affect our operations.

We benefit from our relationship with our individual Promoters and our success depends upon the continuing services of our Promoters and executive Directors who have been responsible for the growth of our business and is closely involved in the overall strategy, direction and management of our business. Our Promoters and executive Directors have been actively involved in the day-to-day operations and management. Accordingly, our performance is heavily dependent upon the services of our Promoters and executive Directors. If our Promoters and executive directors are unable or unwilling to continue in their present position, we may not be able to replace them easily or at all. Further, we rely on the continued services and performance of our key executives and senior management for continued success and smooth functioning of the operations of the Company. If we lose the services of any of our key managerial personnel, it may take reasonable time to locate suitable or qualified replacements and may incur additional expenses to recruit and train new personnel, which could adversely affect our business operations and affect our ability to continue to manage and expand our business. Our Promoters and executive Directors, along with the key managerial personnel, have over the years-built relations with various customers and other persons who form part of our stakeholders and are connected with us. The loss of their services could impair our ability to implement our strategy, and our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may be materially and adversely affected.

15. Any slowdown or work stoppages at our project sites may have effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations

Our projects are subject to various operational risks including, among various factors, the breakdown or failure of equipment, delay in shutdown of existing lines or processes, labour disputes, natural disasters, accidents and the need to comply with applicable legal and regulatory requirements. The occurrence of any of these factors could significantly affect our results of operations and financial condition. Any disruption in our operations due to disputes or other issues with our employees or contract labour work force may adversely affect our business and results of operations. Long periods of business disruption could result in a loss of customers. Although we take precautions to minimize the risk of any significant operational problems at our operation sites, there can be no assurance that we will not face such disruptions in the future.

For further details of our Business, please refer chapter titled “Our Business” beginning on Page 105 of Prospectus.

17. We may be unable to grow our business in international markets, which may adversely affect our business prospects and results of operations.

Our company seek to expansion into new international markets is important to our long-term prospects. Competing successfully in international markets requires additional management attention and resources to tailor our services to the unique aspects of each new country. We may face various risks, including legal and regulatory restrictions, increased advertising and brand building expenditure, challenges caused by distance, language and cultural differences, in addition to our limited experience with such markets and currency exchange rate fluctuations. International markets require a very high standard of quality of products and our Company may not be able to match the international standards thereby failing to make a brand presence in the international markets. If we are unable to make long-lasting relations with the major customers in the overseas market or if we are unable to justify the quality of our products to them, it may make it difficult for us to enter into such markets. These and other risks, which we do not foresee at present, could adversely affect any international expansion or growth, which could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

18. Any failure in our quality control processes may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. We may face product liability claims and legal proceedings if the quality of our products does not meet our customers’ expectations.

Our products may contain certain quality issues or undetected errors, due to defects in manufacture of products or raw materials which are used in the products. We have implemented quality control processes for our raw materials and finished goods on the basis of internal quality standards. However, we cannot assure you that our quality control processes or our product will pass the quality tests and inspections conducted by various agencies as per their prescribed standards will not fail. Any shortcoming in the raw materials procured by us or in the production of our products due to failure of our quality control procedures, negligence and human error or otherwise, may damage our products and result in deficient products. It is imperative for us to meet the regulatory quality standards set by regulatory agencies and our customers as deviation from the same can cause them to reject our products and can also cause damage to our reputation, market standing and brand value.

In the event the quality of our products is sub-standard or our products suffer from defects and are returned by our customers due to quality complaints, we might be compelled to take back the sub-standard products and reimburse the cost paid by our customers. Such quality lapses could strain our longstanding relationship with our customers and our reputation and brand image may suffer, which in turn may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. Our customers may lose faith in the quality of our products and could in turn refuse to further deal in our products, which could have a severe impact on our revenue and business operations. We also face the risk of legal proceedings and product liability claims being brought against us by our customers for defective products sold. We cannot assure you that we will not experience any material product liability losses in the future or that we will not incur significant costs to defend any such claims. A product liability claim may adversely affect our reputation and brand image, as well as entail significant costs.

19. We do not have firm commitment agreements with our customers. If our customers choose not to source their requirements from us, our business and results of operations may be adversely affected.

We do not have firm commitment long-term supply agreements with our customers and instead rely on purchase orders to govern the volume and other terms of our sales of products. Many of the purchase orders we receive from our customers specify a price per unit and delivery schedule, and the quantities to be delivered are determined closer to the date of delivery.

However, such orders may be amended or cancelled prior to finalisation, and should such an amendment or cancellation take place, it may adversely impact our production schedules. Further, where we have contracts with customers, such contracts do not bind our customers to provide us with a specific volume of business and can be terminated by our customers with or without cause, with little or no advance notice and without compensation. Consequently, there is no commitment on the part of the customer to continue to place new work orders with us and as a result, our sales from period to period may fluctuate significantly as a result of changes in our customers' vendor preferences. Further, we may not find any customers or purchasers for the surplus or excess capacity, in which case we would be forced to incur a loss.

Additionally, our customers have high and stringent standards for product quantity and quality as well as delivery schedules. Any failure to meet our customers' expectations could result in the cancellation or non-renewal of contracts or purchase orders. There are also a number of factors, other than our performance that could cause the loss of a customer. Customers may demand price reductions, set-off any payment obligations, require indemnification for themselves or their affiliates, change their outsourcing strategy by moving more work in-house, or replace their existing products with alternative products, any of which may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

20. Any non-compliance or delays in GST Return Filings and EPF Payments may expose us to penalties from the regulators.

As a Company, we are required to file GST returns and make payments in respect of Employee Provident Fund with the respectively authorities. However, we cannot assure that we will not be subject to any legal proceeding or regulatory actions, including monetary penalties by statutory authorities on account of any inadvertent discrepancies in our GST filing or EPF payment in future, which may adversely affect our business, financial condition, and reputation.

21. We have significant power requirements for continuous running of our manufacturing units. Any disruption to our operations on account of interruption in power supply or any irregular or significant hike in power tariffs may have an effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our manufacturing unit's significant electricity requirements and any interruption in the supply of power may temporarily disrupt our operations. Since, we have a high-power consumption, any unexpected or unforeseen increase in the tariff rates can increase the operating cost of our manufacturing units and thereby cause an increase in the production cost which we may not be able to pass on to our customers. There are limited number of electricity providers in the areas from where we operate due to which in case of a price hike, we may not be able to find a cost-effective substitute, which may negatively affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

For further details, please refer to the chapter titled "Our Business" under the heading "Utilities & Infrastructure Facilities" and subheading Power on page 129 of this Prospectus.

22. Our ability to attract, train and retain executives and other qualified employees is critical to our business, results of operations and future growth.

Our business and future growth is substantially dependent on the continued services and performance of our key executives, senior management and skilled personnel, especially personnel with experience in our industry. In particular, our executive directors and our senior management are critical to the overall management of our Company. Their inputs and experience are also valuable for the development of our services, our work culture and the strategic direction taken by our Company. Further, our business depends upon our employees for its successful execution. Some of our key management has been with our Company since long; however, any of them may choose to terminate their employment with us at any time. We cannot assure you that we will be able to retain these employees or find equally qualified and experienced replacements in a timely manner, or at all. We may require a long period of time to hire and train replaced personnel when skilled personnel terminate their employment with our Company. Our ability to compete effectively depends on our ability to attract new employees and to retain and motivate our existing employees. We may be required to increase our levels of employee compensation more rapidly than in the past to remain competitive in attracting skilled employees that our business requires. If we do not succeed in attracting well-qualified employees or retaining or motivating existing employees, our business and prospects for growth could be adversely affected.

23. We have identified certain agreements executed in the past that contain inaccuracies

There have been some instances of erroneous execution in the past with certain agreements. If any party to such agreements is aggrieved, it may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. In the past, there have been some instances of erroneous execution with certain agreements such as execution of partnership deed prior to conversion of firm into Company and rent agreement for registered office, however same has been rectified after execution of Deed of Reconstitution of Partnership dated March 31, 2023 also our company shifted from the rent premises to the lease premises and new lease agreement has been executed between State Industries Promotion Corporation of Tamil Nadu Limited and our company. Further our partnership deed dated 06/07/2010 is not registered with Registrar of Firms (ROF). However, the Deed of Reconstitution of Partnership dated March 31, 2023, was registered with the Registrar of Firms on 05/05/2023 with an incorrect name. This error was rectified with the ROC, and the correct name, "THAAI CASTING LIMITED," was registered on June 12, 2023.

However, it cannot be assured that even in future no such parties will be aggrieved by erroneous execution of previous agreements. Therefore, if the any of the parties to such agreements are aggrieved, we may lose benefits enjoyed through such agreements and face certain punitive actions against our Company or our Directors/Officers in relation to the same which may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

24. We have in the past entered into related party transactions and may continue to do so in the future, which may potentially involve conflicts of interest with the equity shareholders.

Our Company has entered into related party transactions with our Promoter and Promoter Group amounting to Rs. 2,148.99 lacs, Rs. 424.85 lacs, Rs. 105.46 lacs, Rs. 23.00 lacs and Rs. 23.00 lacs in October 31, 2023, July 31, 2023, March 31, 2023, March 31, 2022 and March 31, 2021 respectively. While our Company believes that all such transactions have been conducted on an arm's length basis.

Further Preceding the present status of the company, it is acknowledged that related party transactions (RPT) were not obligated to adhere to the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013/1956. This exemption was based on the firm's classification as a partnership entity and its governance by the stipulations of the Partnership Act, 1932. Subsequent to the conversion of the partnership firm into a company, the company hereby affirms and confirms that all related party transactions are now conducted in strict adherence to the statutory provisions as outlined in the Companies Act, 2013

However, there can be no assurance that we could not have achieved more favourable terms had such transactions not been entered into with related parties. Furthermore, it is likely that we may enter into related party transactions in the future. There can be no assurance that such transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will not have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations

For further information, relating to our related party transactions, see "Restated Financial Information" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" beginning on pages 168 and 172 respectively.

25. We are dependent on third party transportation providers for delivery of raw materials to us from our suppliers We have not entered into any formal contracts with our transport providers and any failure on part of such service providers to meet their obligations could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operation.

To ensure smooth functioning of our manufacturing operations, we need to maintain continuous supply and transportation of the raw materials required from the supplier to our manufacturing units which may be subject to various uncertainties and risks. We are significantly dependent on third party transportation providers for the delivery of raw materials to us. Uncertainties and risks such as transportation strikes or delay in supply of raw materials and products could have an adverse effect on our supplies. Additionally, raw materials and products may be lost or damaged in transit for various reasons including occurrence of accidents or natural disasters. A failure to maintain a continuous supply of raw materials or to deliver our products to our distribution intermediaries in a timely, efficient and reliable manner could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Further, we have not entered into any long-term agreements with our transporters for our manufacturing units and the costs of transportation are generally based on mutual terms and the prevailing market price. In the absence of such agreements, we cannot assure that the transport agencies would fulfill their obligations or would not commit a breach of the understanding with us. In the event that the raw materials suffer damage or are lost during transit, we may not be able to prosecute the agencies due to lack of formal agreements. Further, the transport agencies are not contractually bound to deal with us exclusively, we may face the risk of our competitors offering better terms or prices, which may cause them to cater to our competitors alongside us or on a priority basis, which could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition

26. Our failure to compete effectively in the highly competitive automotive components industry could result in the loss of customers, which could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and future prospects.

We compete with global competitors to retain our existing business as well as to acquire new business. Our failure to obtain new business or to retain or increase our existing business could adversely affect our financial results. In addition, we may incur significant expense in preparing to meet anticipated customer requirements that may not be recovered.

We face increasing competition across our product portfolio. Our premium products face competition from well-established, international producers of automotive components. Our low-cost products face increasing competition from other low-cost producers in India and outside of India, especially in China, from which we have seen increasing competition in recent years.

There is no assurance that we will remain competitive with respect to technology, design and quality. Some of our competitors may have certain advantages, including greater financial resources, technology, research and development capability, greater market penetration and operations in diversified geographies and product portfolios, which may allow our competitors to better respond to market trends. Accordingly, we may not be able to compete effectively with our competitors, which may have an adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial condition and future prospects.

27. An inability to comply with repayment and other covenants in the financing agreements or otherwise meet our debt servicing obligations could adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and credit rating.

Our Company has entered into agreements in relation to financing arrangements with certain banks for meeting business requirements. As of October 31, 2023, we had total outstanding borrowings of Rs. 4,410.07 lakhs. The agreements with respect to our borrowings contain restrictive covenants, including, but not limited to, requirements that we obtain consent from the lenders prior to undertaking certain matters including, among others, effecting a merger, amalgamation or scheme of arrangement, change in capital structure of our Company subject to the threshold prescribed for the shareholding of certain shareholders of our Company and effecting change in the constitutional documents or management of our Company. For further details, see “Financial Indebtedness” beginning on page 182. As on October 31, 2023, our total secured borrowings amounted to Rs. 4,075.68 lakhs, comprising of 92.41% of our total indebtedness. Under the terms of our secured borrowings, we are required to create a charge by way of hypothecation on the assets of our Company, together with cash in hand and bank accounts. As these assets are hypothecated in favour of lenders, our rights in respect of transferring or disposing of these assets are restricted. Many of our financing agreements also include various conditions and covenants that require us to obtain lender consents prior to carrying out certain activities or entering into certain transactions. Typically, restrictive covenants under our financing documents relate to obtaining prior consent of the lender for, among others, change in the capital structure, availing additional borrowings, change in ownership or management control, changes in shareholding pattern and management set-up including its constitution and composition, amalgamation, demerger, merger, acquisition, corporate or debt restructuring or similar action. Our Company is yet to receive consent from lenders in relation to a borrowing availed by us. If we fail to meet our debt service obligations or covenants (or do not receive approvals from our lenders to undertake certain transactions) under the financing agreements, the relevant lenders could declare us to be in default of our agreements, accelerate the maturity of our obligations, enforce security, take possession of the assets. As a result, we may be forced to sell some or all of our assets if we do not have sufficient cash or credit facilities to make these repayments. Our Company intends to obtain the necessary consents in relation to the Issue from aforementioned lenders prior to the filing of the Prospectus with the RoC, and Stock Exchange.

28. Our Company has availed certain unsecured loans.

Our Company has availed certain unsecured loans of which an amount of ₹ 140.13 lakhs and ₹ 334.38 lakhs is outstanding for the Financial Year ended March 31, 2023 and period ended October 31, 2023. In the event, any of such unsecured lenders seek a repayment of any these loans, our Company would need to find alternative sources of financing, which may not be available on commercially reasonable terms, or at all. If we are unable to arrange for any such financing arrangements, we may not have adequate working capital to undertake new projects or complete our ongoing projects. Therefore, any such demand may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. For further details, see “Financial Indebtedness” on page 182 of this Prospectus.

29. We have significant power requirements for continuous running of our manufacturing units. Any disruption to our operations on account of interruption in power supply or any irregular or significant hike in power tariffs may have an effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our manufacturing unit’s significant electricity requirements and any interruption in the supply of power may temporarily disrupt our operations. Since, we have a high-power consumption, any unexpected or unforeseen increase in the tariff rates can increase the operating cost of our manufacturing units and thereby cause an increase in the production cost which we may not be able to pass on to our customers. There are limited number of electricity providers in the areas from where we operate due to which in case of a price hike, we may not be able to find a cost-effective substitute, which may negatively affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled “Our Business” on page 105 of this Prospectus.

30. Our operating results could be adversely affected by weakening of economic conditions due to lock-down in all parts of India and other parts of world & other situation due to pandemic Covid-19

Our overall performance depends in part on the economic conditions of India. Certain economies have experienced periods of downturn due to the present situation prevailing in India and outside India due to pandemic disease of Covid-19 which impacts financial markets, concerns regarding the stability and viability of major financial institutions, declines in gross domestic product, increases in unemployment, volatility in commodity prices and worldwide stock markets, and excessive government debt. The pandemic disease has adversely affected our business. Moreover, the instability in the global economy affects countries in different ways, at different times and with varying severity, which makes the impact to our business unforeseeable and indeterminate. Any of these events, as well as a general weakening of, or declining corporate confidence in the global economy have a material adverse effect on our business, operating results and financial condition.

31. We have identified certain agreements executed in the past that contain inaccuracies

There have been some instances of erroneous execution in the past with certain agreements. If any party to such agreements is aggrieved, it may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. In the past, there have been some instances of erroneous execution with certain agreements such as execution of partnership deed prior to conversion of firm into Company and rent agreement for registered office. Also our partnership deed dated 06/07/2010 is not registered with Registrar of Firms (ROF). Further the firm was registered with Registrar of Firms on 05/05/2023 with incorrect name which was later corrected with ROC as “THAAI CASTING LIMITED” dated 12/06/2023. Till date of filing this Draft Prospectus, there have been no action taken by any party to such agreements. However, it cannot be assured that even in future no such parties will be aggrieved by erroneous execution of previous agreements. Therefore, if the any of the parties to such agreements are aggrieved, we may lose benefits enjoyed through such agreements and face certain punitive actions against our Company or our Directors/Officers in relation to the same which may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

32. We have in the past entered into related party transactions and may continue to do so in the future, which may potentially involve conflicts of interest with the equity shareholders.

Our Company has entered into related party transactions with our Promoter and Promoter Group amounting to Rs. 2,148.99 lacs, Rs. 424.85 lacs, Rs. 105.46 lacs, Rs. 23.00 lacs and Rs. 23.00 lacs in October 31, 2023, July 31, 2023, March 31, 2023, March 31, 2022 and March 31, 2021 respectively. While our Company believes that all such transactions have been conducted on an arm’s length basis and we confirm that the related party transactions entered into by the company are in compliance with the relevant provisions of Companies Act and other applicable laws. However there can be no assurance that we could not have achieved more favourable terms had such transactions not been entered into with related parties. Furthermore, it is likely that we may enter into related party transactions in the future. There can be no assurance that such transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will not have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations

For further information, relating to our related party transactions, see “Restated Financial Information” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” beginning on pages 180 and 184 respectively.

33. We are subject to performance risk from third-party contractors, and operational risks associated with the engagement of third-party contractors and our employees.

We also rely on third-party contractors and our employees for the development, construction and operation of our projects as well as other business operations. While we maintain a diversified set of vendors, we remain subject to the risk that the third-party contractors will not perform their obligations. If the third-party contractors do not perform their obligations or if they deliver any components that have a manufacturing defect or do not comply with the specified quality standards and technical specifications, we may have to enter into new contracts with other contractors at a higher cost or suffer schedule disruptions. Changing a contractor may incur additional costs in finding a replacement service provider or experience significant delays.

In addition, if any of our employees or third-party contractors take, convert, or misuse funds, documents, or data, or fail to follow protocol when interacting with consumers and regulators, we could be liable for damages and subject to regulatory actions and penalties. We could also be subject to civil or criminal liability. It is not always possible to identify and deter misconduct or errors by employees or third-party contractors, and the precautions we take to detect and prevent these activities may not be effective in controlling unknown or unmanaged risks or losses. Our resources, technologies and fraud prevention tools may be insufficient to accurately detect and prevent fraud. Any of these occurrences could diminish our ability to operate our business, increase our potential liabilities to consumers and merchants, and may lead to an inability to attract future projects, cause reputational damage, attract regulatory intervention, and cause financial harm, any or all of which could negatively impact our business, cash flows, financial condition, prospects and results of operations.

- 34. *Our business is manpower intensive and any unavailability of our employees or shortage of contract labour or any strikes, work stoppages, increased wage demands by workmen or changes in regulations governing contractual labour may have an adverse impact on our cash flows and results of operations.

Our business is manpower intensive and we are dependent on the availability of our permanent employees and the supply of a sufficient pool of contract labourers at our project locations. Unavailability or shortage of such a pool of workmen or any strikes, work stoppages, increased wage demands by workmen or changes in regulations governing contractual labour may have an adverse impact on our cash flows and results of operations. The number of contract labourers employed by us varies from time to time based on the nature and extent of work contracted to us and the availability of contract labour. We may not be able to secure the required number of contractual labourers for the timely execution of our projects for a variety of reasons including, but not limited to, possibility of disputes with sub-contractors, strikes, less competitive rates to our sub-contractors as compared to our competitors or changes in labour regulations that may limit availability of contractual labour.

We are subject to laws and regulations relating to employee welfare and benefits such as minimum wage, working conditions, employee insurance, and other such employee benefits and any changes to existing labour legislations, including upward revision of wages required by such state governments to be paid to such contract labourers, limitations on the number of hours of work or provision of improved facilities, such as food or safety equipment, may adversely affect our business and results of our operations.

Further, there can be no assurance that disruptions in our business will not be experienced if there are strikes, work stoppages, disputes or other problems with sub-contractors or contract labourers deployed at our projects. This may adversely affect our business and cash flows and results of operations.

- 35. *We could be harmed by employee misconduct or errors that are difficult to detect and any such incidences could adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations and reputation.

Employee misconduct or errors could expose us to business risks or losses, including regulatory sanctions and cause serious harm to our reputation. There can be no assurance that we will be able to detect or deter such misconduct. Moreover, the precautions we take to prevent and detect such activity may not be effective in all cases. Our employees may also commit errors that could subject us to claims and proceedings for alleged negligence, as well as regulatory actions on account of which our business, financial condition, results of operations and goodwill could be adversely affected.

- 36. *We may be unable to adequately protect our intellectual property and may be subject to risks of infringement Claims

Our Company has filed application on November 16, 2023 for  which is currently pending with the Authority. There can be no assurance that we will be able to obtain or renew our registration in a timely manner or at all, which may affect our ability to use the brand in the future. We may not be able to prevent infringement of our trademarks and a passing off action may not provide sufficient protection until such time that this registration is granted.

The measures we take to protect our intellectual property include relying on Indian laws and initiating legal proceedings, which may not be adequate to prevent unauthorised use of our intellectual property by third parties. We may also incur significant costs in connection with legal actions relating to such rights. Notwithstanding the precautions we take to protect our intellectual property rights, it is possible that third parties may copy or otherwise infringe on our rights, which may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. Our failure to detect counterfeiting or imitation of our own brand products and trademarks and to mitigate the adverse impact from such counterfeiting and imitation could result in a decrease in our sales volume or market share.

While we take care to ensure that we comply with the intellectual property rights of others, we cannot determine with certainty whether we are infringing any existing third-party intellectual property rights, which may force us to alter our offerings. We may also be susceptible to claims from third parties asserting infringement and other related claims. If similar claims are raised in the future, these claims could result in costly litigation, divert management's attention and resources, subject us to significant liabilities and require us to enter into potentially expensive royalty or licensing agreements or to cease certain offerings. Any of the foregoing could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition

- 37. *We require certain approvals and licenses in the ordinary course of business and the failure to successfully obtain/renew such registrations would adversely affect our operations, results of operations and financial condition.

We require several statutory and regulatory permits, NOCs, licenses and approvals in the ordinary course of our business, some of which our Company has either received, applied for or is in the process of application in case of renewal as and when required in the ordinary course. Previously we were a partnership firm in the name of M/s Thaaai Casting after complying with the relevant provisions and procedures of Companies Act 2013, the firm was converted into public limited company followed by the name change of the company to “Thaaai Casting Limited”. There are some of the approvals which are in the previous name, we are taking necessary steps for transferring the same in the new name of our company. In case we fail to transfer/obtain the same in the name of our company same may adversely affect our business or we may not be able to carry our business. Any failure to apply for and obtain the required approvals, licences, NOCs, registrations or permits in a timely manner, or any suspension or revocation of any of the approvals, licences, registrations and permits would result in a delay in our business operations which could otherwise adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations and prospects of the Company. We cannot assure you that the approvals, licences, registrations and permits issued to us would not be suspended or revoked in the event of non-compliance or alleged non-compliance with any terms or conditions thereof, or pursuant to any regulatory action. In addition to same, our failure to comply with existing or increased regulations, or the introduction of changes to existing regulations, could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

These laws and regulations governing us are increasingly becoming stringent and may in the future create substantial compliance or liabilities and costs. While we endeavor to comply with applicable regulatory requirements, it is possible that such compliance measures may restrict our business and operations, result in increased cost and onerous compliance measures, and an inability to comply with such regulatory requirements may attract penalty. For further details regarding the material approvals, licenses, registrations and permits, which have not been obtained by our Company or are, pending renewal, see “Government and Other Approvals” on page 205 of this Prospectus.

Furthermore, we cannot assure you that the approvals, licenses, registrations and permits issued to us will not be suspended or revoked in the event of non-compliance or alleged non-compliance with any terms or conditions thereof, or pursuant to any regulatory action. Any suspension or revocation of any of the approvals, licenses, registrations and permits that has been or may be issued to us may affect our business and results of operations.

38. Our Promoters and Executive Directors hold Equity Shares in our Company and are therefore interested in the Company’s performance in addition to their remuneration and reimbursement of expenses.

Our Promoters and Directors are interested in our Company, in addition to regular remuneration or benefits and reimbursement of expenses, to the extent of their shareholding in our Company. We cannot assure you that our Promoters will exercise their rights as shareholders to the benefit and best interest of our Company. Our Promoters may take or block actions with respect to our business which may conflict with the best interests of the Company or that of minority shareholders. For further information on the interest of our Promoters and Directors of our Company, other than reimbursement of expenses incurred or normal remuneration or benefits, see “Our Management” and “Our Promoters and Promoter Group” on pages 158 and 171 respectively of this Prospectus.

39. Further, pursuant to Section 27 of the Companies Act 2013, any variation in the objects would require a special resolution of the Shareholders and our Promoters or controlling Shareholders will be required to provide an exit opportunity to the Shareholders of our Company who do not agree to such proposal to vary the objects, in such manner as may be prescribed in future by the SEBI.

Accordingly, prospective investors in the Issue will need to rely upon our management’s judgment with respect to the use of Net Proceeds. If we are unable to enter into arrangements for utilization of Net proceeds as expected and assumed by us in a timely manner or at all, we may not be able to derive the expected benefits from the proceeds of the Issue and our business and financial results may suffer.

40. The average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares held by our Promoters could be lower than the Issue Price.

Our Promoters’ average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares in our Company may be lower than the Issue Price which is proposed to be determined on a fixed price basis. For further details regarding average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters in our Company and build-up of Equity Shares by our Promoters in our Company, please refer to the chapter titled “Capital Structure” on page 65 of this Prospectus.

41. The requirement of funds in relation to the objects of the Issue has not been appraised.

We intend to use the proceeds of the Issue for the purposes described in the section titled “Objects of the Issue” on page 76. The objects of the Issue have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution. These are based on management estimates and current conditions and are subject to changes in external circumstances or costs, or in other financial condition, business or strategy. Based on the competitive nature of the industry, we may have to revise our management estimates from time to time and consequently our funding requirements may also change. The deployment of the funds towards the objects of the issue is entirely at the discretion of the Board of Directors/Management and is not subject to monitoring by external independent agency. However, the deployment of funds is subject to monitoring by our Audit Committee. Any inability on our part to effectively utilize the Issue proceeds could adversely affect our financials.

42. The deployment of funds is entirely at our discretion and as per the details mentioned in the chapter titled “Objects of the Issue”.

As the issue size shall be less than ₹10,000 lacs, under Regulation 262 of the SEBI ICDR Regulations it is not required that a monitoring agency be appointed by our Company, for overseeing the deployment and utilization of funds raised through this Issue. Therefore, the deployment of the funds towards the Objects of this Issue is entirely at the discretion of our Board of Directors and is not subject to monitoring by external independent agency. Our Board of Directors along with the Audit Committee will monitor the utilization of Issue proceeds and shall have the flexibility in applying the proceeds of this Issue. However, the management of our Company shall not have the power to alter the objects of this Issue except with the approval of the Shareholders of the Company given by way of a special resolution in a general meeting, in the manner specified in Section 27 of the Companies Act, 2013. Additionally, the dissenting shareholders being those shareholders who have not agreed to the proposal to vary the objects of this Issue, our Promoters shall provide them with an opportunity to exit at such price, and in such manner and conditions as may be specified by the SEBI, in respect to the same. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled — “Objects of the Issue” on page 76 of this Prospectus.

43. Our funding requirements and proposed deployment of the Net Proceeds are based on management estimates and have not been independently appraised, and may be subject to change based on various factors, some of which are beyond our control

Our funding requirements and deployment of the Net Proceeds are based on internal management estimates based on current market conditions, and have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution or other independent agency. Furthermore, in the absence of such independent appraisal, our funding requirements may be subject to change based on various factors which are beyond our control. For further details, please see the section titled “Objects of the Issue” beginning on page 76 of this Prospectus.

44. The requirements of being a public listed company may strain our resources and impose additional requirements.

With the increased scrutiny of the affairs of a public listed company by shareholders, regulators and the public at large, we will incur significant legal, accounting, corporate governance and other expenses that we were not required to incur in the past. We will also be subject to the provisions of the listing agreements signed with the Stock Exchange. In order to meet our financial control and disclosure obligations, significant resources and management supervision will be required. As a result, management’s attention may be diverted from other business concerns, which could have an adverse effect on our business and operations.

There can be no assurance that we will be able to satisfy our reporting obligations. In addition, we will need to increase the strength of our management team and hire additional legal and accounting staff with appropriate public company experience and accounting knowledge and we cannot assure that we will be able to do so in a timely manner. Failure of our Company to meet the listing requirements of stock exchange, if any, could lead to imposition of penalties, including suspension of trading in shares of the Company.

45. Our insurance coverage may not be adequate to protect us against all potential losses to which we may be subject and this may have a material effect on our business and financial condition.

While we maintain insurance coverage, in amounts which we believe are commercially appropriate, including related to our registered office, our movable property and employees, provide appropriate coverage in relation to fire, explosions, floods, inundations, earthquakes, landslides we may not have sufficient insurance coverage to cover all possible economic losses, including when the loss suffered is not easily quantifiable and in the event of severe damage to our business. Even if we have made a claim under an existing insurance policy, we may not be able to successfully assert our claim for any liability or loss under such insurance policy. Additionally, there may be various other risks and losses for which we are not insured either because such risks are uninsurable or not insurable on commercially acceptable terms. The occurrence of an event for which we are not adequately or sufficiently insured could have an effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

In addition, in the future, we may not be able to maintain insurance of the types or at levels which we deem necessary or adequate or at rates which we consider reasonable. The occurrence of an event for which we are not adequately or sufficiently insured or the successful assertion of one or more large claims against us that exceed available insurance coverage, or changes in our insurance policies (including premium increases or the imposition of large deductible or co-insurance requirements), could have an effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

46. Non-compliance with amendment in Safety, Health and Environmental laws and other applicable regulations, may adversely affect the Company's results of operations and its financial condition.

Our company is in business of automotive sector. Due to nature of Business, the company is subject to various rules and regulations in relation to safety, health and environmental protection including Air Prevention and Control of Pollution Act, and Water Prevention and National Environmental Policy, 2006, Environment (Protection) Act, 1986 as amended ("EPA"), The Code on Wages, 2019, The Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020, The Industrial Relations Code, 2020, The Code on Social Security, 2020, Employees State Insurance Act, 1948, Contract Labour Act, Employees Provident Fund Act, Bonus Act etc. Further, the company is subjected to the jurisdiction and is governed by Indian Law, rules and regulations in relation to safety, health and environmental protection due to the nature of the business of the company. These safety, health and environmental protection laws and regulations inter alia impose controls on air and water discharge, employee exposure to hazardous substances and other aspects of the Company's operations and products. Failure to comply with any existing or future regulations applicable to the Company may result in levy of fines, penalties, commencement of judicial proceedings and/or third-party claims, and may adversely affect the results of operations and financial condition.

For further details regarding applicable laws to the company, please refer to the chapter titled "Key Industrial Regulations And Policies" beginning on page 148 of this Prospectus.

47. We have not independently verified certain data in this Prospectus.

We have not independently verified data from the industry and related data contained in this Prospectus and although we believe the sources mentioned in the report to be reliable, we cannot assure you that they are complete or reliable. Such data may also be produced on a different basis from comparable information compiled with regards to other countries. Therefore, discussions of matters relating to India, its economy or the industries in which we operate that is included herein are subject to the caveat that the statistical and other data upon which such discussions are based have not been verified by us and may be incomplete, inaccurate or unreliable. Due to incorrect or ineffective data collection methods or discrepancies between published information and market practice and other problems, the statistics herein may be inaccurate or may not be comparable to statistics produced elsewhere and should not be unduly relied upon. Further, we cannot assure you that they are stated or compiled on the same basis or with the same degree of accuracy, as the case may be, elsewhere.

48. Rights of shareholders under Indian laws may be more limited than under the laws of other jurisdictions.

Indian legal principles related to corporate procedures, directors' fiduciary duties and liabilities may differ from those that would apply to a company in another jurisdiction. Investors may have more difficulty in asserting their rights as shareholders in an Indian company than as shareholder of a corporation in another jurisdiction. Shareholders' rights under Indian law may not be as extensive as shareholders' rights under the laws of other jurisdictions. Under the Companies Act, prior to issuance of any new equity shares, a public limited company incorporated under Indian law must offer its equity shareholders pre-emptive rights to subscribe to a proportionate number of equity shares to maintain existing ownership, unless such pre-emptive rights are waived by a special resolution by a three-fourths majority of the equity shareholders voting on such resolution. If you are a foreign investor and the law of the foreign jurisdiction that you are in does not permit the exercise of such pre-emptive rights without our filing an offering document or registration statement with the applicable authority in such foreign jurisdiction, you will be unable to exercise such pre-emptive rights, unless we make such a filing. If we elect not to file an offering document or a registration statement, the new securities may be issued to a custodian, who may sell the securities for your benefit. The value such custodian receives on the sale of any such securities and the related transaction costs cannot be predicted. To the extent that you are unable to exercise pre-emptive rights granted in respect of our Equity Shares, your proportional interest in our Company would decline.

49. We will continue to be controlled by our Promoter and Promoter Group after the completion of the Issue, which will allow them to influence the outcome of matters submitted for approval of our shareholders.

As on the date of this Prospectus, our Promoter and Promoter Group hold 85.98% of the issued and outstanding paid-up share capital of our Company. As a result, they will have the ability to influence matters requiring shareholders' approval, including the ability to appoint Directors to our Board and the right to approve significant actions at Board and at shareholders' meetings, including the issue of Equity Shares and dividend payments, business plans, mergers and acquisitions, any consolidation or joint venture arrangements, any amendment to our Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association, and any other business decisions. We cannot assure you that our Promoters and Promoter Group will not have conflicts of interest with other shareholders or with our Company. Any such conflict may adversely affect our ability to execute our business strategy or to operate our business.

For further details regarding our shareholding, please refer to chapter titled "Capital Structure" beginning on Page 65 of this Prospectus.

50. We are susceptible to risks relating to unionization of our employees employed by us.

None of our employees are currently represented by a recognized collective bargaining agreement. We cannot assure you that our employees will not unionize, or attempt to unionize in the future, that they will not otherwise seek higher wages and enhanced employee benefits. We also cannot assure you that we will not experience disruptions in our work due to disputes or other problems with our workforce. If not resolved in a timely manner, these risks could limit our ability to provide our services to our clients, or result in an increase in our cost of employee benefits and other expenses. If any of these risks materialize, our business, results of operations and financial condition could be affected.

51. Any future issuance of Equity Shares may dilute your shareholdings, and sale of the Equity Shares by our major shareholders may adversely affect the trading price of our Equity Shares.

Any future equity issuances by our Company may lead to the dilution of investors' shareholdings in our Company. In addition, any sale of substantial Equity Shares in the public market after the completion of this Issue, including by our major shareholders, or the perception that such sales could occur, could adversely affect the market price of the Equity Shares and could significantly impair our future ability to raise capital through offerings of the Equity Shares. We cannot predict what effect, if any, market sales of the Equity Shares held by the major shareholders of our Company or the availability of these Equity Shares for future sale will have on the market price of our Equity Shares.

52. Our inability to effectively implement our business and growth strategy may have an adverse effect on our operation and growth.

The success of our business will largely depend on our ability to effectively implement our business and growth strategy. In the past we have generally been successful in execution of our business but there can be no assurance that we will be able to execute our strategy on time and within the estimated budget in the future. If we are unable to implement our business and growth strategy, this may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

53. In the event there is any delay in the completion of the Offer, or delay in schedule of implementation, there would be a corresponding delay in the completion of the objects of this offer which would in turn affect our revenues and results of operations.

The funds that we receive would be utilized for the objects of the offer as has been stated in the chapter titled "Objects of The Issue" on Page no. 76 of this Prospectus. The proposed schedule of implementation of the objects of the Offer is based on our management's estimates. If the schedule of implementation is delayed for any other reason whatsoever, including any delay in the completion of the Issue, it may adversely affect our revenues and results of operations.

54. There are restrictions on daily movements in the price of the Equity Shares, which may adversely affect a shareholder's ability to sell, or the price at which it can sell, Equity Shares at a particular point in time

Following the Offer, we will be subject to a daily "Circuit Breaker" imposed by NSE, which does not allow transactions beyond specified increases or decreases in the price of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker operates independently of the index-based, market-wide circuit breakers generally imposed by SEBI on Indian stock exchanges. The percentage limit on our circuit breakers will be set by the stock exchange based on the historical volatility in the price and trading volume of the Equity Shares.

55. There is no guarantee that the Equity Shares issued pursuant to the Issue will be listed on the Emerge Platform of National Stock Exchange of India Limited in a timely manner, or at all.

In accordance with Indian law and practice, permission for listing and trading of the Equity Shares issued pursuant to the offer will not be granted until after the Equity Shares have been issued and allotted. Approval for listing and trading will require all relevant documents authorizing the issuing of Equity Shares to be submitted. There could be a failure or delay in listing the Equity Shares on the Emerge Platform of National Stock Exchange of India Limited. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval would restrict your ability to dispose of your Equity Shares.

EXTERNAL RISK FACTOR

56. Natural calamities and force majeure events may have an adverse impact on our business.

The occurrence of natural disasters, including cyclones, storms, floods, earthquakes, tsunamis, tornadoes, fires, explosions, pandemic disease and man-made disasters, including acts of terrorism and military actions, could adversely affect our results of operations, cash flows or financial condition. Terrorist attacks and other acts of violence or war in India or globally may adversely affect the Indian securities markets. In addition, any deterioration in international relations, especially between India and its neighbouring countries, may result in investor concern regarding regional stability which could adversely affect the price of the Equity Shares. In addition, India has witnessed local civil disturbances in recent years and it is possible that future civil unrest as well as other adverse social, economic or political events in India could have an adverse effect on our business. Such incidents could also create a greater perception that investment in Indian companies involves a higher degree of risk and could have an adverse effect on our business and the market price of the Equity Shares.

57. The Indian tax regime is currently undergoing substantial changes which could adversely affect our business.

The goods and service tax (“GST”) that has been implemented with effect from July 1, 2017 combines taxes and levies by the GoI and state governments into a unified rate structure, and replaces indirect taxes on goods and services such as central excise duty, service tax, customs duty, central sales tax, state VAT, cess and surcharge and excise that were being collected by the GoI and state governments.

As regards the General Anti-Avoidance Rules (“GAAR”), The general anti avoidance rules (“GAAR”) provisions have been made effective from assessment year 2018-19 onwards, i.e.; financial Year 2017-18. The GAAR provisions intend to declare an arrangement as an “impermissible avoidance arrangement”, if the main purpose or one of the main purposes of such arrangement is to obtain a tax benefit, and satisfies at least one of the following tests (i) creates rights, or obligations, which are not ordinarily created between persons dealing at arm’s length; (ii) results, directly or indirectly, in misuse, or abuse, of the provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961; (iii) lacks commercial substance or is deemed to lack commercial substance, in whole or in part; or (iv) is entered into, or carried out, by means, or in a manner, that is not ordinarily engaged for bona fide purposes. If GAAR provisions are invoked, the tax authorities will have wider powers, including denial of tax benefit or a benefit under a tax treaty. In the absence of any precedents on the subject, the application of these provisions is uncertain. As the taxation regime in India is undergoing a significant overhaul, its consequent effects on economy cannot be determined at present and there can be no assurance that such effects would not adversely affect our business, future financial performance and the trading price of the Equity Shares.

58. Political, economic or other factors that are beyond our control may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and cash flows.

We currently operate only in India and are dependent on domestic, regional and market conditions. Our performance, growth and market price of our Equity Shares are and will be dependent on the power industry of the Indian economy. There have been periods of slowdown in the economic growth of India. For instance, the present situation of lock-down is prevailing in India due to pandemic Covid-19 spread in India and all other parts of world. If such condition prevail for longer time the Demand for our services may be adversely affected by an economic downturn in domestic, regional and global economies. India’s economic growth is also affected by various other factors including domestic consumption and savings, balance of trade movements, namely export demand and movements in key imports, global economic uncertainty and liquidity crisis, volatility in exchange currency rates. Consequently, any future slowdown in the Indian economy could harm our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. Also, a change in the Government or a change in the economic and deregulation policies could affect economic conditions prevalent in the areas in which we operate in general and our business in particular and high rates of inflation in India could increase our costs without proportionately increasing our revenues, and as such decrease our operating margins.

59. Our business is substantially affected by prevailing economic, political and other prevailing conditions in India.

Our Company is incorporated in India, and the majority of our assets and employees are located in India. As a result, we are highly dependent on prevailing economic conditions in India and our results of operations are significantly affected by factors influencing the Indian economy. Factors that may adversely affect the Indian economy, and hence our results of operations, may include:

- the macroeconomic climate, including any increase in Indian interest rates or inflation;
- any exchange rate fluctuations, the imposition of currency controls and restrictions on the right to convert or repatriate currency or export assets;
- Any scarcity of credit or other financing in India, resulting in an adverse impact on economic conditions in India and scarcity of financing for our expansions;
- Prevailing income conditions among Indian consumers and Indian corporations;
- volatility in, and actual or perceived trends in trading activity on, India’s principal stock exchanges;
- changes in India’s tax, trade, fiscal or monetary policies;
- political instability, terrorism or military conflict in India or in countries in the region or globally, including in India’s various neighbouring countries;
- occurrence of natural or man-made disasters;
- prevailing regional or global economic conditions, including in India’s principal export markets;
- other significant regulatory or economic developments in or affecting India or its ER&D sector; international business practices that may conflict with other customs or legal requirements to which we are subject, including anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws;

60. Any downgrading of India’s debt rating by an independent agency may harm our ability to raise financing.

Any adverse revisions to India's credit ratings international debt by international rating agencies may adversely affect our ability to raise additional overseas financing and the interest rates and other commercial terms at which such additional financing is available. This could have an adverse effect on our ability to fund our growth on favourable terms or at all, and consequently adversely affect our business and financial performance and the price of our Equity Shares.

61. We are subject to risks arising from interest rate fluctuations, which could adversely impact our business, financial condition and operating results.

Changes in interest rates could significantly affect our financial condition and results of operations. If the interest rates for future borrowings increase significantly, our cost of servicing such debt will increase. This may negatively impact our results of operations, planned capital expenditures and cash flows.

62. Foreign investors are subject to foreign investment restrictions under Indian law that limits our ability to attract foreign investors, which may adversely impact the market price of the Equity Shares.

Under the foreign exchange regulations currently in force in India, transfer of shares between non- residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain exceptions) if they comply with the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If the transfer of shares, which are sought to be transferred, is not in compliance with such pricing guidelines or reporting requirements or fall under any of the exceptions referred to above, then the prior approval of the RBI will be required. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert the Rupee proceeds from a sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India will require a no objection/ tax clearance certificate from the income tax authority. There can be no assurance that any approval required from the RBI or any other government agency can be obtained on any particular terms or at all.

For instance, assume a Price Band of ₹20 to ₹ 24 per share, Issue size of 3,000 Equity Shares and receipt of five Bids from Bidders, details of which are shown in the table below. The illustrative book given below shows the demand for the Equity Shares of the Issuer at various prices and is collated from Bids received from various investors.

II. The rationale for purchasing the machine with the proceeds from the mentioned issue is as follows:

As the company has observed a consistent demand for aluminium die-casting products and machining services from both existing and potential customers, there has been a notable increase in the overall production requirements of the company. In light of this, the company is actively engaged in a process to elevate its production capacity from the current level to meet the heightened demand. To fulfil this imperative, an investment of Rs. 3730.00 lakhs from the aforementioned proceeds are earmarked for the acquisition of the following machinery.

The company is strategically planning to automate its processes, aiming to utilize 100% capacity for ensuring timely product deliveries with the expected quality standards. Currently equipped with a capacity of up to 350 tons for Pressure Die Casting (PDC) Machines, the company has recently expanded by adding an 800-ton capacity with ROBO Extraction. The ongoing plan involves further upgrading to higher tonnages, ranging from 350 to 1300 tons. Through this enhancement, the company underscores its ability to anticipate technological and regulatory changes, successfully developing and introducing new and improved products in a timely manner. This capability is identified as a significant factor contributing to the company's competitiveness.

Further our company working for continuous improvement process to mitigate the gaps in the process of raw material to the finished goods for this our company implemented the Kaizen philosophy within its business verticals of aluminium die casting and Induction Heating and Quenching (IHQ) which provide us to use the less capacity utilization of the install capacity to generate higher productions and complete the cycle of our business vertical process.

The company's actual capacity utilization appears lower due to the following fact: the company's capacity creation always occurs approximately 6 months in advance of actual delivery/utilization. This capacity then becomes fully utilized within 3 to 4 months of the commencement of production/delivery. In essence, the continuous creation of additional capacities to address the geometrically increasing turnover results in the reflection of lower utilization of capacities.

GLOBAL OUTLOOK

The global economy remains in a precarious state amid the protracted effects of the overlapping negative shocks of the pandemic, the Russian Federation's invasion of Ukraine, and the sharp tightening of monetary policy to contain high inflation. Global growth is projected to slow significantly in the second half of this year, with weakness continuing in 2024. Inflation pressures persist, and tight monetary policy is expected to weigh substantially on activity. Recent banking sector stress in advanced economies will also likely dampen activity through more restrictive credit conditions. The possibility of more widespread bank turmoil and tighter monetary policy could result in even weaker global growth. Rising borrowing costs in advanced economies could lead to financial dislocations in the more vulnerable emerging market and developing economies (EMDEs). In low-income countries, in particular, fiscal positions are increasingly precarious. Comprehensive policy action is needed at the global and national levels to foster macroeconomic and financial stability. Among many EMDEs, and especially in low-income countries, bolstering fiscal sustainability will require generating higher revenues, making spending more efficient, and improving debt management practices. Continued international cooperation is also necessary to tackle climate change, support populations affected by crises and hunger, and provide debt relief where needed. In the longer term, reversing a projected decline in EMDE potential growth will require reforms to bolster physical and human capital and labor-supply growth.

After growing 3.1 percent last year, the global economy is set to slow substantially in 2023, to 2.1 percent, amid continued monetary policy tightening to rein in high inflation, before a tepid recovery in 2024, to 2.4 percent. Tight global financial conditions and subdued external demand are expected to weigh on growth across emerging market and developing economies (EMDEs). Projections for many countries have been revised down over the forecast horizon, with upgrades primarily due to stronger-than-expected data at the beginning of 2023 more than offset by downgrades thereafter. Inflation has been persistent but is projected to decline gradually as demand weakens and commodity prices moderate, provided longer-term inflation expectations remain anchored.

Global growth could be weaker than anticipated in the event of more widespread banking sector stress, or if more persistent inflation pressures prompt tighter-than-expected monetary policy. Weak growth prospects and heightened risks in the near term compound a long-term slowdown in potential growth, which has been exacerbated by the overlapping shocks of the pandemic, the Russian Federation's invasion of Ukraine, and the sharp tightening of global financial conditions. This difficult context highlights a multitude of policy challenges. Recent bank failures call for a renewed focus on global financial regulatory reform. Global cooperation is also necessary to accelerate the clean energy transition, mitigate climate change, and provide debt relief for the rising number of countries experiencing debt distress. At the national level, it is imperative to implement credible policies to contain inflation and ensure macroeconomic and financial stability, as well as undertake reforms to set the foundations for a robust, sustainable, and inclusive development path.

Global financial conditions have tightened as a result of policy rate hikes and, to a lesser extent, recent bouts of financial instability. Many banks experienced substantial unrealized losses due to the sharp rise in policy interest rates. Concerns about the viability of balance sheets of some banks led to depositor flight and market volatility in the United States and Europe earlier in the year, which were stemmed by a swift and extensive policy response. Financial markets remain highly sensitive to evolving expectations about the future path of interest rates of major central banks. Spillovers from banking turmoil in advanced economies to EMDEs have so far been limited. However, countries with more pronounced macroeconomic policy vulnerabilities, as reflected by lower credit ratings, have experienced slower growth and greater financial stress, including large currency depreciations and a sharp widening of sovereign spreads. Projections for 2023 growth in these economies have fallen by more than half over the past year

1. Headline aggregate growth rates are calculated using GDP weights at average 2010-19 prices and market exchange rates.
2. GDP growth rates are on a fiscal year basis. Aggregates that include these countries are calculated using data compiled on a calendar year basis. For India and the Islamic Republic of Iran, the column labeled 2022 refers to FY2022/23. For Bangladesh, the Arab Republic of Egypt, and Pakistan, the column labeled 2022 refers to FY2021/22. Pakistan's growth rates are based on GDP at factor cost.
3. World growth rates are calculated using average 2010-19 purchasing power parity (PPP) weights, which attribute a greater share of global GDP to emerging market and developing economies (EMDEs) than market exchange rates.
4. World trade volume of goods and nonfactor services.
5. Indexes are expressed in nominal U.S. dollars (2010 = 100). Oil refers to the Brent crude oil benchmark. For weights and composition of indexes, see <https://worldbank.org/commodities>.

Emerging market and developing economies

EMDE growth is expected to pick up in 2023 almost entirely due to China's economic reopening. Excluding China, growth in EMDEs is set to slow markedly. A protracted period of tight domestic monetary policy, fiscal consolidation, and weak external demand will curb growth in many EMDEs. Although advanced-economy banking stress has so far not translated to EMDE financial sectors, the effects of more restrictive global financial conditions will remain a headwind to growth, particularly for EMDEs with weaker credit ratings. In LICs, domestic vulnerabilities, increased fragility, and persistently high poverty rates, will continue to weigh on economic recoveries.

Recent developments in emerging market and developing economies

Indicators of domestic demand in emerging market and developing economies (EMDEs), such as consumer confidence, have started to recover but remain weak. Tighter financial conditions have weighed on activity in sectors more sensitive to interest rates, such as construction and industrial production, both of which have been subdued. Tourism has recovered substantially since 2022.

Note: EAP = East Asia and Pacific; EMDEs = emerging market and developing economies.

- A. Figure shows the simple average of consumer confidence indices standardized against their historical values for 12 EMDEs (Albania, Argentina, Brazil, China, Colombia, Hungary, India, Indonesia, Mexico, Pakistan, Thailand, and Türkiye). Standard deviations for constituent scores are based on the period from 2015 to the last observation, which is March 2023.

B. Increases in the financial conditions index imply more restrictive conditions. Increases in the EMDE construction activity proxy indicate greater confidence and increasing year-on-year activity in EMDE construction sectors. The construction activity proxy is a simple average of z-scores, multiplied by 100, for variables capturing confidence and activity in construction sectors for 9 EMDEs (Argentina, Brazil, Mexico, Chile, China, Hungary, Romania, South Africa, and Thailand). EMDE financial conditions is a GDP-weighted average of the Goldman Sachs financial conditions indices for 12 EMDEs, lagged by 3 months (that is, the July 2022 value signifies conditions in April 2022).

C. Figure shows the quarterly growth of industrial production in 31 EMDEs.

D. Figure shows total arrivals for country groups, expressed as a percentage of the same month in 2019. Sample includes 26 EMDEs, of which 5 are EAP.

INDIAN ECONOMY

India, which became the world's most populous nation in 2023, is defying the overall global economic slowdown. While growth is expected to moderate somewhat over the next decade, India is expected to remain a key driver of global growth.

The Indian economy is holding up relatively well amid a challenging global economic backdrop, with GDP growth of around 6 percent expected for the calendar year 2023 and about 5 percent for 2024, well above other large economies. Growth is expected to moderate somewhat over the next decade to about 4.5 percent annually, reflecting primarily a slower rate of capital accumulation and productivity growth. However, India is expected to remain a key driver of global growth, and the expanding market that results should offer global businesses plenty of growth opportunities.

Short-Term Outlook

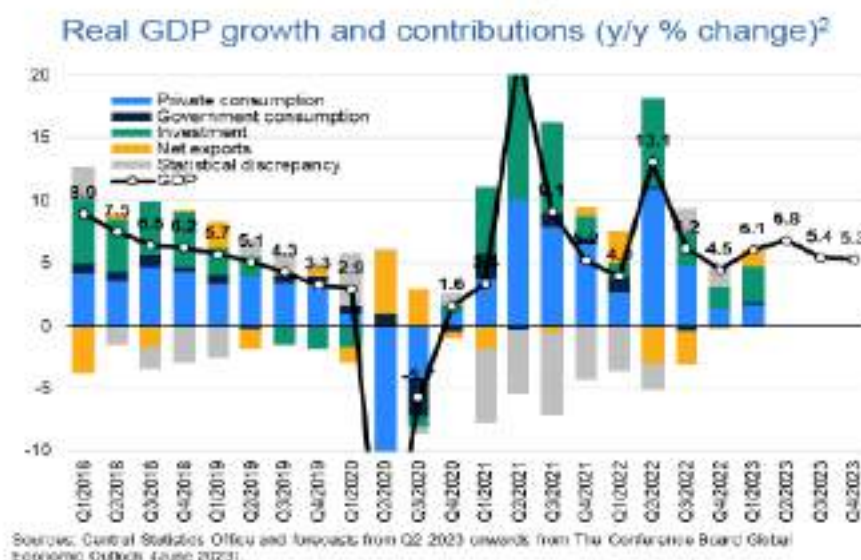

The Indian economy is enjoying robust momentum in 2023. Real gross domestic product (GDP), a broad measure of expenditures on goods and services, expanded by 6.1 percent in the first quarter compared to the same quarter a year ago, picking up the pace from last quarter's 4.5 percent (Chart 1). Growth in the first quarter was buoyed by investment (green bar in the chart) and net exports (yellow bar), while the contributions from private and government consumption (light blue and black bars) were relatively muted.

Near-term growth dynamics look broadly favorable. Growth is expected to pick up further in the second quarter of 2023, though largely related to the low base of the previous year, after which it may slow somewhat to about 5 percent year over year. Recent readings of economic activity indicators, including purchasing manager indices and The Conference Board Leading Economic Indicator for India suggest continued growth ahead. Investment continues to be supported by government capital expenditures. Private consumption is supported by ongoing labor market improvements, as indicated by rising employment rates, particularly for women, and falling inflationary pressures. Further support comes from favorable developments in the agricultural sector, which employs over 40 percent of the Indian workforce.¹ Forecasts are pointing to an expected record harvest, especially of wheat, and a normal monsoon season, though the arrival of an El Nino weather pattern represents a risk. Net trade, strongly positive in Q1, could moderate somewhat over the course of 2023 as parts of the global economy are slowing, though India's services exports continue to boom. On the other hand, India is a net commodity importer, and so lower commodity prices in 2023 (compared to 2022) would support growth as they lower costs and improve the trade balance. One example of a lower cost on the horizon: we forecast Brent oil prices to average 84 dollars in 2023 (versus 99 dollars in 2022)

Long-Term Outlook

GDP growth picked up in the first quarter of 2023 on the back of investment and exports

Projections for growth over the next decade point to moderate slowing compared to pre-pandemic rates. Economic growth in India averaged about 7 percent annually in the first two decades of the 2000s. The pandemic recession and recovery period (2020-2023) saw a substantial downshift in annual average growth to about 4 percent. Over the next decade, our projections point to annual growth of about 4.5 percent (Chart 2). These GDP forecasts are informed by projections of the so-called supply-side drivers of growth, namely labor, capital and total factor productivity (TFP).

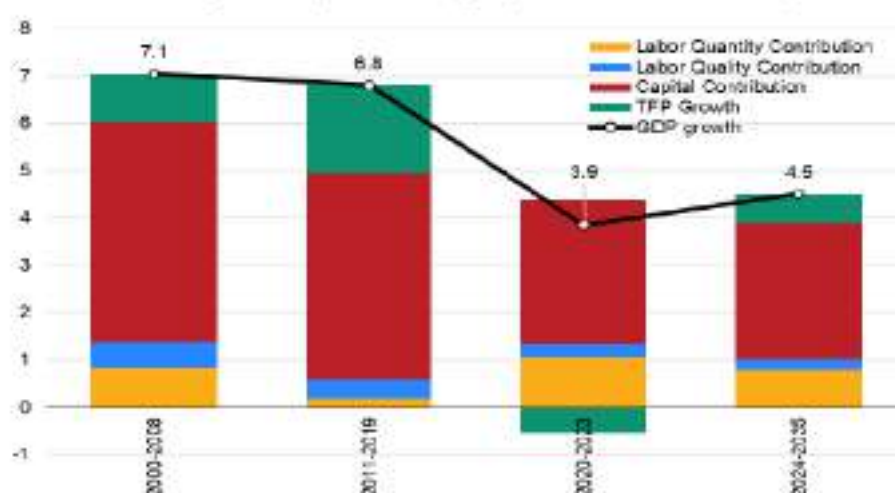

Increases in participation rates should lead to a bigger contribution to growth from labor. Over the coming decade we expect the recent trend of increased participation rates to continue and lead to a larger contribution of labor input to GDP growth relative to the 2011-2019 period. For example, the employment rate of females aged 15 and above in urban areas has been on an upward trend, from 16.4 percent in the second quarter of 2018 (first datapoint available of these series) to 20.6 in the first quarter of 2023. The same is true for female participation trends in rural areas, though there is less timely data available to confidently make the claim of a sustained turnaround.

Over the next decade we expect capital to remain the dominant driver of growth, though at a slower rate than before. This will lead to slower overall GDP growth. Private investment may remain relatively subdued as uncertainty and unpredictability in terms of economic policy persists and is constrained by continued low saving rates. Also, improvements in the supply of labor may also require fewer investments in capital than would have been the case otherwise. A much faster growth path would (among other things) require a sustained industrialization drive, which we deem unlikely. Still, despite a slower rate of capital input growth compared to its own history, the overall rate of growth remains impressive by international comparison and reflects India's continued development and catching up potential vis-à-vis richer economies.

Capital has been the dominant driver growth (red bars in Chart 2). Capital accumulation has been the dominant driver of growth in India over the last two decades, explaining almost two-thirds of real GDP growth. However, growth in capital inputs and underlying investment rates have been on a slowing trend across virtually all industries since around 2012. This slowdown has been attributed to, among other things, falling long-term saving rates, balance sheet crises on the part of banks and construction companies, and a weakening global trade and investment environment in the aftermath of the Global Financial Crisis of 2008/09.⁴ While public investment has held up, it was mostly private investment that suffered from these adverse trends. This culminated in a contribution of capital of about 3 percentage points to average annual GDP growth in the pandemic period of 2020-2023 (Chart 2), versus about 4.5 percentage points in the previous decades.

Despite challenges, India should remain among the fastest growing economies globally in the next decade.

Despite being a lower-middle income economy, a relatively young and large population, and a growing middle class should represent plenty of growth opportunities for business worldwide. Furthermore, wide use of English and a relatively skilled workforce underpin the role of India as the world's back office (e.g., IT services, administrative support, consultancy services). India is also benefiting from relocation of production activities, mainly out of China. But overall, we think the scope of industrialization in India is relatively limited. Despite decades of policy objectives, India's industrial base remains relatively underdeveloped. Finally, geopolitical developments are also relatively benign for India, as Western political leaders increasingly see India as a strategic partner in the region to counter the influence of China.

GLOBALLY ALUMINIUM DIE CASTING INDUSTRY

The global aluminum casting market was valued at $72.9 billion in 2022, and is projected to reach $124.9 billion by 2032, growing at a CAGR of 5.6% from 2023 to 2032. Increasing usage of aluminum in various applications, such as transportation and telecommunication, is expected to boost market growth during the forecast period. A rising preference for high strength and lightweight castings is a prominent driving factor. Manufacturers are required to comply with the regulations, to enhance fuel efficiency and reduce harmful emissions, in the transportation industry. This is possible by the incorporation of lightweight materials in production of the vehicles.

Increasing demand for general utility and sports utility vehicles is anticipated to drive product demand in the U.S. For instance, according to the automotive consultancy firm, LMC Automotive, the U.S. is likely to have more than 90 mainstream SUV models by end of 2023. Moreover, automobile manufacturers in the country are under increasing pressure to meet the regulatory requirements pertaining to the environmental impact of vehicles. As per Corporate Average Fuel Economy (CAFE), passenger cars are required to reach a fuel economy target of 54.5 miles per gallon by 2026 owing to the increasing emission of greenhouse gases, which, in turn, is anticipated to augment market growth.

Aluminum casting is a process of forming aluminum casts of fixed dimensions. Aluminum casting is used for making aluminum objects by pouring molten aluminum into an empty shaped space. The metal then cools and hardens into the form given to it by this shaped mold. Aluminum casting is used in various end use sectors including automotive & transportation, electrical & electronics, building & construction, industrial, aerospace, and others.

Increase in investments in building infrastructure in countries such as the U.S., China, Japan, Mexico, and India, have led the building & construction sector to witness a significant growth where aluminum casting process is widely employed for designing and production of both interior and exterior metallic structures, window frames, and others. Furthermore, factors such as increasing disposable income, technological upgrades, and spurring rise in original equipment manufacturers (OEMs) have led the automotive & transportation sector to witness a significant growth.

Aluminum castings are widely used in automotive sector for producing various automotive parts of different shapes. For instance, aluminum die castings are used in producing alloy wheels, body frames, pistons, engine blocks, valve covers, carburetors, fan clutches, and others. This is anticipated to fuel the growth of the aluminum casting market during the forecast period.

Moreover, the increase in government spending for manufacturing advanced aircrafts with modern armor facilities have surged the utilization of aluminum casting process for producing various aircraft components. This may act as one of the key drivers responsible for the growth of the aluminum casting market for defense sectors. Furthermore, countries such as the U.S., China, India, and others are constantly engaged in expanding their defense systems by introducing various high-tech equipment where aluminum casting is widely used for producing outer shell, fasteners, and other parts. This may propel the growth of the aluminum casting market in the defense sector.

However, aluminum casting involves several processes such as melting of metal, transferring the molten metal to mold cavity, and solidification of molten metal. These processes require a relatively large amount of heat energy. Furthermore, the overall process consists of different sophisticated equipment that are fabricated to work at high temperature application. These factors make aluminum casting an expensive process which in turn may restrain manufacturers with less investment potential to enter into aluminum casting market.

On the contrary, emerging economies such as China, India, and others are witnessing a rapid surge in demand for various consumer goods which in turn has increased the set-up of various manufacturing units. For instance, according to a report published by the China Industrial Production Index in 2023, China's industrial production rose by 1.3% in 2022.

Aluminum castings are often considered to be the top metal of choice among manufacturing industries owing to its corrosion resistance, high strength, and low-density properties. These factors make aluminum castings best-suited for manufacturing a wide range of industrial components, outer coverings, structures, and others. Moreover, aluminum is a good conductor of heat attributed to which aluminum castings are widely used in industrial vessels. This factor may increase the demand for aluminum casting in the growing industrial manufacturing sector; thus, creating remunerative opportunities for the aluminum casting market.

The aluminum casting market is segmented on the basis of process, end user, and region. On the basis of process, the market is categorized into die casting, sand casting, and permanent mold casting. As per end user, it is divided into transportation, industrial, building & construction, and others. Region-wise, the market is studied across North America, Europe, Asia-Pacific, and LAMEA.

The Asia-Pacific aluminum casting market size is projected to grow at the highest CAGR of 5.9% during the forecast period and accounted for 57.8% of aluminum casting market share in 2022. The rising electrical & electronics, building & construction, transportation, industrial, and other sectors have enhanced the performance of the aluminum casting market in the Asia-Pacific region. China's electronic sector is increasing rapidly which has forced the glass like carbon manufacturers to produce high-quality aluminum casting in the region. According to a report published by the United Nations Statistics Division, China witnessed around 28.7% of the global manufacturing output for consumer electronic products in 2019.

Also, countries such as India and Australia are witnessing a rapid increase in automotive & transportation sectors where aluminum castings are used to produce various automotive parts and transportation equipment. For instance, according to a report published by the Indian Ministry of Commerce and Industry, the transportation sector in India is expected to grow at a compound annual rate (CAGR) of 5.9% owing to the development of highways, widespread railway networks, aviation ports, and waterways structure. This may enhance the performance of the aluminum casting market in the Asia-Pacific region.

The global aluminum casting market profiles leading players that include Alcoa Corporation, Bodine Aluminum, BUVO Castings, Consolidated Metco, Inc., Dynacast, Rio Tinto, RusAL, RYOBI Aluminium Casting (UK) Ltd., Shandong Xinanrui Casting, and Walbro. The global aluminum casting market report provides in-depth competitive analysis as well as profiles of these major players.

Process Insights

The die casting segment accounted for the largest volume share of around 53.0% owing to the rising demand for aluminum casting products in the automotive sector. Die casting is used to manufacture various auto parts such as engines, cylinders, gears, and flywheels, which are used in high-end vehicles to mass-produce vehicles. This is owing to factors such as the low cost of die casting and strict CO2 emission laws being laid down around the world. Aluminum die casting is further segmented into pressure die casting and others. The distinct characteristics offered by pressure die casting such as smooth surface finish, easy filling of cavity, strong mechanical properties, and tighter dimension tolerance are expected to assist segment growth, especially in the automotive sector. The others category includes vacuum and squeeze die casting.

Permanent mold casting is a process to manufacture a large number of cast products using a single mold structure that is made from high-temperature withstanding materials, such as cast iron and die steel. The finished product from permanent mold casting has a superior finish with high dimensional tolerance, which makes it suitable for the manufacturing of motorsport and recreational vehicle components.

Rising demand for motorcycles, especially in the U.S., is likely to drive the demand for permanent mold casting over the coming years. As per data published by the U.S. International Trade Commission (USITC) in 2018, the new registration of 600cc or fewer motorcycles increased from 58.3 thousand units in 2013 to 63.4 thousand units in 2017. Thus, steady demand from the motorcycle segment is likely to offer ample opportunities for manufacturers of aluminum permanent mold casting in the near future.

The industry is also expected to benefit from the government's focus on "Make in India" and "Atmanirbhar Bharat" initiatives.

The Indian die casting industry is also expected to benefit from the government's focus on the "Make in India" and "Atmanirbhar Bharat" initiatives. These initiatives are aimed at promoting domestic manufacturing and reducing reliance on imports. The government has also taken steps to improve the infrastructure and business environment in the country, which is expected to further boost the growth of the die casting industry.

The Indian die casting industry is casting a bright future for itself. With increasing demand from key sectors and government support, the industry is poised for strong growth in the coming years. The industry is also playing a vital role in the government's "Make in India" and "Atmanirbhar Bharat" initiatives. By manufacturing die-cast components domestically, the industry is helping to reduce India's reliance on imports and boost its manufacturing sector.

The Indian die casting industry is truly a casting call for success. With its strong fundamentals and bright prospects, the industry is set to play a leading role in India's economic growth in the years to come.

Aluminium being the metal of the future, the developed world moved in that direction decades ago, to the extent that, on an average, their automobiles use close to 180 kg of it, against India's 45 kg. In other sectors too, the world has moved ahead, with automotive making up 23% of overall usage, construction 22%, packaging 13%, electrical 12%, machinery and equipment 8.5%, consumer durables 4.5%, and others 4%.

There are attributes to the metal that has made the world change from ferrous metals to aluminium. It is lightweight, doesn't corrode, is strong and durable, conducts heat and electricity, is flexible where needed and impermeable otherwise, and remains highly recyclable. A US study estimates a 6-8% fuel savings for every 10% weight reduction achieved by switching to aluminium in vehicles. With a life span of 40 to 50 years, it is increasingly finding application in the building and construction industry as well. Add to that the metal's recyclability, which can take place endlessly for only a 5% increment in energy and emissions. A World Bank study states that the metal is extremely crucial to achieving a low carbon footprint when used in wind and solar energy generation, besides energy storage batteries.

India's tryst with aluminium, on the other hand, has been a mixed bag. We are the world's 4th largest alumina producer, 3rd largest aluminium producer, and 5th largest consumer, with abundant quantities of some of the best bauxite anywhere. Yet, our per capita consumption at 2.5 kgs against the world's 11 kgs leaves a lot to be desired. It also gives hope of building an entire aluminium industry ecosystem. As of now, its usage is just 2% of the GDP, compared to steel at 12%, and cement at 9%.

India's leading aluminium die casting manufacturers have world-class manufacturing facilities and are experts in manufacturing intricate aluminium castings. The die-casting manufacturers are served by seasoned professionals who are well capable of performing casting tasks of any level and complexity. Besides a talented and experienced workforce, these companies also make use of the latest technology to produce parts that are highly durable and light in weight. Aluminium die-casting is a highly effective and sustainable way to create metal spare parts, as aluminium alloys are ideal for the die-casting process. Besides, aluminium die-casting parts have a decorative finish or protective barrier against corrosion, and aluminium is highly conductive making it an ideal solution for transferring electrical and thermal energy. Aluminium is highly preferred by the die-casting manufacturer because it is a completely recyclable and reusable material along with being energy efficient and highly eco-friendly.

Aluminium die-casting is greatly preferred over other metal-forming processes because it has the ability to create the most complex spare parts in intriguing shapes and sizes that are hard to create even with extrusion and machining. The tight tolerances and complexities required in the intriguing auto spare parts are only possible when these parts are produced using aluminium die casting process. Besides, aluminium die-casting process also produces spare parts of complex shapes having textured or smooth surfaces, are light in weight, have unmatched dimensional stability, and have high thermal and electrical conductivity. Spare parts manufactured with aluminium die-casting process have a high strength-to-weight ratio, excellent mechanical properties, and corrosion resistance. The spare parts manufactured with aluminium die-casting process are environmentally friendly with 100% recyclability and have extended life with overall excellent value.

Aluminium die-casting is a process used to produce a large number of complex aluminium parts that are difficult to produce through any other process. Aluminium is considered the best metal for metal casting because of its properties, characteristics, easy availability, quality, and durability. In this process, aluminium ingots undergo heat treatment at an extremely high temperature till they are completely molten. The molten material is then injected into the steel mould or steel die cavity that is made up of two halves. After solidifying the liquid materials, both the halves are separated and are called the cast aluminium part. Aluminium die-cast product is precisely formed and has an extremely smooth surface that does not require any further machining process. Aluminium die-casting is an ideal process to produce aluminium spare parts in high volume. Mainly because the dies or moulds are usually made of steel so aluminium die-casting manufacturers in India make use of the same mould multiple times.

Gravity Die Casting is Expected to Witness the Fastest Growth

Gravity Die casting is one of the oldest ways to die casting. This die casting process is used for producing accurately dimensioned, sharply defined, smooth, or textured surface metal parts. The main advantage of gravity die casting is its high speed of production. The reusable die tooling allows for many hundreds of castings to be produced in a day. High-definition parts reduce machining costs, and superior surface finish reduces finishing costs.

Simulation-based castings are one of the key trends that may drive the growth of the die casting market in the forthcoming years. The simulation-based casting process is used to produce cost-effective components, have high precision, and are reliable. This casting process involves various benefits, one of which ensures easy and accurate fault detection. Moreover, simulation-based manufacturing results in reduced wastage and operational costs. Additionally, they can predict defects and their location easily, and more precisely than the conventional method.

India has the world's second-largest foundry industry. Foundries in India can produce die casting products that serve a wide range of automobile applications conforming to international standards. The government's focus on Make in India, developing the automotive industry, and the stringent emission norms drive the market for automotive parts aluminum die castings in the country. The castings consumed by the automotive sector accounted for 35% of the country's production.

Lightweight cast components made from aluminum are becoming increasingly popular, as they meet the weight reduction objectives without compromising on strength, reliability, and durability. However, gradual shifting focus toward zinc die casting in cars and parts may hinder the growth of the market. FUTURE OF DIE CASTING IN INDIA

- The automobile and electrical industry in India consumes 70% of die cast Aluminium parts.
- The recent past has seen the birth of many alternate sources of power to propel vehicles.
- Most of these involve disruptive technologies and are in a nascent stage.
- The future will demand lighter materials as compared to Steel & Cast Iron to compensate for the additional weight of lithium ion batteries.
- Thus increasing the percentage of use of Aluminum and other composite materials.

The future is still unclear on the way forward, if it is electric or hybrid and this will significantly change the dynamics of the Aluminum High Pressure Die Casting Industry. The pressure die casting industry in India has experienced remarkable growth, driven by technological advancements, the shift towards lightweight materials, and the expanding automotive sector. This industry offers tremendous opportunities for manufacturers to expand their presence in the global market, diversify into new sectors, and invest in research and development. With its skilled workforce, competitive costs, and technological capabilities, India is poised to become a leading player in the pressure die casting industry. By leveraging these trends and opportunities, Indian manufacturers can unlock new avenues for growth and contribute to the country's overall economic development.

3. INDUCTION HEATING AND QUENCHING (IHQ): -

Induction heating and quenching are treatment processes to enhance the mechanical properties of various auto components. The goal is often to improve hardness, wear resistance, and overall durability.

Process flow of Induction Heating and Quenching: -

Process of Induction Quenching & Tempering

1. Receipt of Raw Material/ Semi-finished goods:

- Raw materials, typically metal alloys, are received from Customers.

2. Raw Material /Semi-finished goods Inspection:

- Inspection of raw materials to ensure Incoming quality.

3. Raw Material / Semi-finished goods Storage:

- Approved raw materials are stored in designated areas.

4. Induction Quenching & Tempering:

• Washing:

- The pre-washing in induction hardening is to remove contaminants like oil, grease, dirt, and metal filings from metal parts. This is essential to prevent uneven hardening, surface defects, and poor coating adhesion during the heating process.

• Induction Hardening:

- Induction hardening uses electromagnetic induction to heat the metal. An alternating current is passed through an induction coil, creating a rapidly alternating magnetic field that generates heat within the steel part.

- Induction hardening can target specific areas of a component for hardening, unlike other methods that heat the entire piece. This localized heating is controlled by the coil design and the duration of exposure.
- Quenching:
 - After reaching the desired temperature, the metal is rapidly cooled (quenched) using a cooling medium as polymer.
 - The rapid heating and cooling alter the steel's microstructure, typically transforming it into martensite, a very hard form of steel.
- Post Induction Oiling:
 - This is under process to apply a protective oil layer to the metal surface. This oil layer acts as a barrier against moisture and other corrosive elements, thereby preventing rust and corrosion.
- Tempering:
 - While induction hardening increases the hardness and strength of the steel, it can also make it too brittle for practical use. Tempering adjusts the properties of the hardened steel to make it more durable and less prone to cracking.

5. Magnetic Particle Inspection:

- After quenching and tempering, the metal component undergoes magnetic particle inspection to detect any surface crack or near-surface defects.

6. Depth/Hardness Checking:

- Measurement of hardness and depth of the treated layer to ensure it meets the customer requirements.

7. Final Inspection:

- Comprehensive inspection of the component to ensure it meets all quality standards.

8. Finished Goods Storage:

- Approved and finished products are stored in designated areas awaiting further processing or shipment.

9. Final Despatch:

- The finished goods are prepared for shipment and dispatched to the customers.

The following description is an overview of certain sector-specific relevant laws and regulations in India which are applicable to the operations of our Company and its business. The description of laws and regulations set out below is not exhaustive and is only intended to provide general information to Bidders. The information in this section is neither designed nor intended to be a substitute for professional legal advice and investors are advised to seek independent professional legal advice.

The statements below are obtained from publications available in the public domain based on the current provisions of applicable Indian law, and the judicial, regulatory and administrative interpretations thereof, which are subject to change or modification by legislative, regulatory, administrative, quasi-judicial or judicial decisions/actions and our Company are under no obligation to update the same.

A. BUSINESS/INDUSTRY RELATED LAWS AND REGULATIONS

The Motor Vehicles Act, 1988/ The Motor Vehicles Rules, 1989

The Motor Vehicles Act, 1988, and its corresponding rules from 1989 encompass provisions related to auto components within the broader regulatory framework governing motor vehicles in India. These regulations address the manufacturing, quality standards, and certification processes for auto components. The Act emphasizes the importance of ensuring that vehicles and their components meet specified safety and emission standards. It grants the authorities the power to prescribe norms for the design, construction, and operation of vehicles, including the components therein. The Motor Vehicles Rules, 1989, provide additional details on compliance procedures, quality control measures, and the documentation required for the approval and certification of auto components. This holistic approach ensures that the auto components used in vehicles adhere to established standards, promoting road safety and environmental sustainability.

Safety standards by Automotive Industry Standard Committee & Bureau of Indian Standards

The Automotive Industry Standards (AIS) Committee, along with the Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS), plays a pivotal role in establishing and enforcing safety standards within the automotive sector in India. The AIS Committee, constituted under the aegis of the Ministry of Road Transport and Highways, focuses on formulating and updating standards related to various aspects of vehicle design, construction, and operation to enhance safety on the roads. Simultaneously, the Bureau of Indian Standards, a national body responsible for developing and certifying standards across diverse industries, collaborates with the AIS Committee to set benchmarks for the quality and safety of automotive products. These collaborative efforts ensure that vehicles, their components, and associated systems comply with rigorous safety norms, contributing to the overall well-being of road users and promoting a secure automotive environment in the country.

The Indian Contract Act, 1872

The Indian Contract Act codifies the way in which a contract may be entered into, executed, implementation of the provisions of a contract and effects of breach of a contract. A person is free to contract on any terms he chooses. The Contract Act consists of limiting factors subject to which contract may be entered into, executed and breach enforced. It provides a framework of rules and regulations that govern formation and performance of contract. The contracting parties themselves decide the rights and duties of parties and terms of agreement.

The Specific Relief Act, 1963

The Specific Relief Act is complimentary to the provisions of the Contract Act and the Transfer of Property Act, as the Act applies both to movable property and immovable property. The Act applies in cases where the Court can order specific performance of a contract. Specific relief can be granted only for purpose of enforcing individual civil rights and not for the mere purpose of enforcing a civil law. 'Specific performance' means Court will ask the party to perform his part of agreement, instead of asking him to pay damages to other part.

Municipality Laws

Pursuant to the Constitution (Seventy-Fourth Amendment) Act, 1992, the respective state legislatures in India have power to endow the municipalities with power to implement schemes and perform functions in relation to matters listed in the Twelfth Schedule to the Constitution of India. The respective States of India have enacted laws empowering the municipalities to issue trade license for operating stores and implementation of regulations relating to such license along with prescribing penalties for non-compliance.

Transfer of Property Act, 1882

The Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (the “T.P. Act”) governs the transfer of property, including immovable property, between natural persons excluding a transfer by operation of law. The T.P. Act establishes the general principles relating to the transfer of property, including among other things, identifying the categories of property that are capable of being transferred, the persons competent to transfer property, the validity of restrictions and conditions imposed on the transfer and the creation of contingent and vested interest in the property. The T.P. Act also provides for the rights and liabilities of the vendor and purchaser in case of a transaction relating to sale of property and the lessor and lessee if the transaction involves lease of land, as the case may be.

The Registration Act, 1908

The Registration Act, 1908 (the “Act”) was passed to consolidate all the previous legislations which were enacted in relation to the registration of documents. This Act was promulgated to achieve the purpose of maintaining a proper regulatory record of transactional documents with a recognized officer in order to safeguard the original copies. The Act lays down two types of registration of documents, one being mandatory registration, which has been laid down under Section 17 of the Act and relates to documents such as, inter alia gift deed or transfer deed for an immovable property, non-testamentary instruments purporting to an interest in any immovable property, leasing or renting an immovable property. The other type of registration has been laid down under Section 18 of the Act which provides for the category of documents, registration of which is optional or discretionary and include, wills, instrument for transfer of shares, adoption deeds, etc. Failure to register a document under Section 17 of the Act can attract severe consequences, including declaration of invalidity of the transfer in question; however, no such consequence is attracted in case of Section 18 of the Act. Sections 28 and 31 of the Act provide the sub-registrars and other officers, the authority to register documents under this Act. Registration of a document, provides authenticity to a document and also acts as a conclusive proof in relation to the execution of such a document in the court of law.

Indian Stamp Act, 1899

Stamp duty is required to be paid on such category of transaction documents laid down under the various laws of the states, which denotes that stamp duty was paid before the document became legally binding. The stamp duty has to be paid on such documents or instruments and at such rates which have been specified in the First Schedule of the Act. Instruments as mentioned in the said schedule of the Act, if are not duly stamped are not admissible in the court of law as valid evidence for the transaction contained therein. The Act also provides for impounding of instruments which are not sufficiently stamped or not stamped at all. Unstamped and deficiently stamped instruments can be impounded by the relevant authorities and validated by imposing of penalty on the parties. The amount of penalty payable on such instruments may vary from state to state.

Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881

In India, cheques are governed by the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, which is largely a codification of the English Law on the subject. The Act provides effective legal provision to restrain people from issuing cheques without having sufficient funds in their account or any stringent provision to punish them in the event of such cheque not being honored by their bankers and returned unpaid. Section 138 of the Act, creates statutory offence in the matter of dishonor of cheques on the ground of insufficiency of funds in the account maintained by a person with the banker which is punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine which may extend to twice the amount of the cheque, or with both.

The Arbitration & Conciliation Act, 1996

The Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 is an act to consolidate and amend the law relating to domestic arbitration, international commercial arbitration and enforcement of foreign arbitral awards as also to define the law relating to conciliation and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto. It aims at streamlining the process of arbitration and facilitating conciliation in business matters. The Act recognizes the autonomy of parties in the conduct of arbitral proceedings by the arbitral tribunal and abolishes the scope of judicial review of the award and minimizes the supervisory role of Courts. A significant feature of the Act is the appointment of arbitrators by the Chief Justice of India or Chief Justice of High Court. The Chief Justice may either appoint the arbitrator himself or nominate a person or Institution to nominate the arbitrator. The autonomy of the arbitral tribunal has further been strengthened by empowering them to decide on jurisdiction and to consider objections regarding the existence or validity of the arbitration agreement.

Goods and Service Tax Act, 2017

The Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 is an Act to make a provision for levy and collection of tax on intra-State supply of goods or services or both by the Central Government and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto. In line with CGST Act, each state Governments has enacted State Goods and Service Tax Act for respective states. Goods and Services Tax (GST) is a comprehensive indirect tax on manufacture, sale and consumption of goods and services throughout India to replace taxes levied by the Central and State Governments. This method allows GSTregistered businesses to claim tax credit to the value of GST they paid on purchase of goods or services or both as part of their normal commercial activity. The mechanism provides for two level taxation of interstate and intra state transactions. When the supply of goods or services happens within a state called as intra-state transactions, then both the CGST and SGST will be collected. Whereas if the supply of goods or services happens between the states called as inter-state transactions and IGST will be collected. Exports are considered as zero-rated supply and imports are levied the same taxes as domestic goods and services adhering to the destination principle in addition to the Customs Duty which has not been subsumed in the GST.

Customs Act, 1962

The provisions of the Customs Act, 1962 and rules made there under are applicable at the time of import of goods i.e. bringing into India from a place outside India or at the time of export of goods i.e. taken out of India to a place outside India. Any Company requiring to import or export any goods is first required to get it registered and obtain an IEC (Importer Exporter Code). Imported goods in India attract basic customs duty, additional customs duty and education cess. The rates of basic customs duty are specified under the Customs Tariff Act 1975. C. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LAWS

Information Technology Act, 2000

The Information Technology Act, 2000 (the “IT Act”) creates a liability on a body corporate which is negligent in implementing and maintaining reasonable security practices and procedures, and thereby causing wrongful loss or wrongful gain to any person, while possessing, dealing with, or handling any sensitive personal data or information in a computer resource owned, controlled or operated by it but affords protection to intermediaries with respect to third party information liability. The IT Act also provides for civil and criminal liability including compensation, fines, and imprisonment for various computer related offences. These include offences relating to unauthorised disclosure of confidential information and committing of fraudulent acts through computers, tampering with source code, unauthorised access, publication or transmission of obscene material etc. The IT Act empowers the Government of India to formulate rules with respect to reasonable security practices and procedures and sensitive personal data. Additionally, the IT Act empowers the Government of India to direct any of its agencies to intercept, monitor or decrypt any information in the interest of sovereignty, integrity, defence and security of India, among other things. In April 2011, the Department of Information Technology under the Ministry of Communications and Information Technology notified the Information Technology (Reasonable Security Practices and Procedures and Sensitive Personal Data or Information) Rules 2011 under Section 43A of the IT Act and the Information Technology (Intermediaries Guidelines) Rules, 2011 under Section 79(2) of the IT Act.

Trade Marks Act, 1999

Indian trademark law permits the registration of trademarks for goods and services. The Trade Marks Act, 1999 (“Trade Mark Act”) governs the statutory protection of trademarks and for the prevention of the use of fraudulent marks in India. An application for trademark registration may be made by individual or joint applicants and can be made on the basis of either use or intention to use a trademark in the future. Once granted, trademark registration is valid for ten years, unless cancelled, and may be renewed indefinitely upon payment of renewal fees every ten years. If not renewed after ten years, the mark lapses and the registration has to be restored. The Trade Mark (Amendment) Act, 2010 has been enacted by the Government to amend the Trade Mark Act to enable Indian nationals as well as foreign nationals to secure simultaneous protection of trademark in other countries. It also seeks to simplify the law relating to transfer of ownership of trademarks by assignment or transmission and to align the law with international practice.

In March 2017, the Trade Marks Rules, 2017 (“Trade Mark Rules”) were notified, in supersession of the Trade Marks Rules, 2002. The Trade Marks Rules brought with them some changes in the application process, in terms of an increase in application fees and common formats for multiple kinds of applications. However, the e-filing process has been incentivized by providing lower application fees.

Copyright Act, 1957

The Copyright Act, 1957, governs copyright protection in India. Under the Copyright Act, a copyright may subsist in original literary, dramatic, musical or artistic works, cinematograph films, and sound recordings. Following the issuance of the International Copyright Order, 1999, subject to certain exceptions, the provisions of the Copyright Act apply to nationals of all member states of the World Trade Organisation. While copyright registration is not a prerequisite for acquiring or enforcing a copyright, registration creates a presumption favouring the ownership of the copyright by the registered owner. Copyright registration may expedite infringement proceedings and reduce delay caused due to evidentiary considerations. Once registered, the copyright protection of a work lasts for 60 years.

The remedies available in the event of infringement of copyright under the Copyright Act include civil proceedings for damages, account of profits, injunction and the delivery of the infringing copies to the copyright owner. The Copyright Act also provides for criminal remedies, including imprisonment of the accused and the imposition of fines and seizures of infringing copies.

It is authorised to periodically formulate the Indian Foreign Trade Policy, 2015-20 (“Foreign Trade Policy”) and amend it thereafter whenever it deems fit. All exports and imports are required to be in compliance with this policy. The Foreign Trade Policy provides for certain schemes for the promotion of export of finished goods and import of inputs. The Foreign Trade Act, read with the Foreign Trade Policy, also provides that no person or company can make exports or imports without having obtained an importer exporter code (IEC) number unless such person or company is specifically exempted. The IEC shall be valid until it is cancelled by the issuing authority.

FACTORS AFFECTING OUR RESULT OF OPERATIONS

Except as otherwise stated in this Prospectus and the Risk Factors given in the Prospectus, the following important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from the expectations include, among others:

Regulatory Framework

We have obtained all regulatory permissions which are necessary to run our business, Further, some of the approvals are granted for fixed periods of time and need renewals, which are obtained in the course of business, however, there may be change in statutory regulations at any time which cannot be predicted by us. There can be no assurance that the change in regulations will not impact our operations in the future.

Ability of Management

Our success depends on the continued services and performance of the members of our management team and other key employees. Competition for senior management in the industry is intense, and we may not be able to retain our existing senior management or attract and retain new senior management in the future. The loss of any member of our senior management or other key personnel may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Ability to manage logistics and transportation needs

Apart from in-house transportation facility we rely on third party transportation and other logistic facilities at every stage of our business activity including for procurement of products from our suppliers and for transportation from our godown to our customers and other markets. Since the cost of our goods also carried by third party transporters is typically much higher than the consideration paid for transportation, it may be difficult for us to recover damages for damaged, delayed or lost goods. Our operations and profitability are dependent upon the availability of transportation and other logistic facilities in a time and cost-efficient manner. Accordingly, our business is vulnerable to increased transportation costs, transportation strikes and lock-outs, shortage of labour, delays and disruption of transportation services for events such as weather-related problems and accidents. Further, global supply chains can be impacted with the increase in the fees of shipping routes putting cost pressures. Further, movement of goods encounters additional risks such as accidents, pilferage, spoilage or shrinkage may adversely affect our operations, results of operations and financial condition. Although we have not experienced any material logistics and transport related disruptions in the past, any prolonged disruption or unavailability of such facilities in a timely manner could result in delays or non-supply or may require us to look for alternative sources which may not be cost-effective, thereby adversely affecting our operations, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

Market & Economic conditions

India is one of the largest economies and is growing at a rapid pace. But in this globalised economy, all the businesses face an uncertain level of volatility from unexpected global events which ranges from global pandemics to wars, to weather changes to supply chain disruption, which may change the economic dynamics and the purchasing capability of the end customers. At the time of market slowdown, the demand falls which has adverse impact on our business.

Competition

We operate in a competitive atmosphere. Our competition varies by market, geographic areas and type of products. Our Company may face stiff competition from domestic as well as global market as the dynamic changes. Some of our competitors may have greater resources than those available to us. While service quality, technical ability, performance records, etc are key factors in client decisions among competitors, however, price & quality are the deciding factor in most cases. Further, this industry is fragmented with many small and medium sized companies and entities, which manufactures some of these products at various levels, which may adversely affect our business operation and financial condition. Further, there are no entry barriers in this industry and any expansion in capacity of existing manufacturers would further intensify competition. Moreover, as we seek to diversify into new geographical areas, new territories, new emerging markets, we face competition from competitors that have a pan-India presence and also from competitors that have a strong presence in regional markets. The markets in which we compete and intend to compete are undergoing, and are expected to continue to undergo, rapid and significant change. We expect competition to intensify as technological advances and consolidations continue. These competitive factors may force us to reduce rates, and to pursue new market opportunities. Increased competition could result in reduced demand for our products, increased expenses, reduced margins and loss of market share. Failure to compete successfully against current or future competitors could harm our business, operating cash flows and financial condition.

COVID-19 Pandemic

Since the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic in March 2020, our Company's operations have been affected as our employees faced the threat of getting infected. In 2020, cases of the novel corona virus started rapidly increasing in India, which led the government of India to impose a nationwide lockdown. The spread of Covid-19 and its recent developments have had and might continue to have repercussions across local, national and global economies. To prevent the spread of Covid-19 and to comply with the restrictions, we had to temporarily suspend our operations in order to follow the Government's norms. We continuously monitored the economic conditions and have outlined sufficient measures to combat the pandemic situation at our business premises. Once the lockdown was lifted, our operations restarted in full swing. Initially we did find a little hiccup in finding workers but because of our enterprising organization, we were able to source quality workforce and we were able to train them and we restarted our operations. After lifting the lockdown and resuming our operations the demand in our industry abruptly increased from the different sectors and we attained the highest production during the partial year 2020-21 and FY 2021-22. The demand after pandemic ultimately nullified the impact of shutdown during COVID 19 pandemic. The future impact of COVID-19 or any other severe communicable disease on our business and results of operations depends on several factors including those discussed in the chapter "Risk Factors" beginning on Page No.31. We are continuing to closely monitor the economic conditions and the effect of COVID-19 and have outlined certain measures to combat the pandemic situation and to minimize the impact on our business.

Cost and availability of raw material

We are susceptible to raw material price fluctuations which could result in changes in operating margins. Since our primary raw material is aluminium ingots, volatility in the price of the same would have an impact on our cost of production.

Any reduction or interruption in the supply of raw material or an inability on our part to find alternative sources for the procurement of such raw material may have an adverse effect on our ability to manufacture our products in a timely or cost-effective manner and may lead to a breach of our contractual obligations with our customers.

change in technology and backward integration by its customers in the casting industry is significantly influenced by technological advancements and the degree of backward integration by its customers. The evolution of technology plays a pivotal role in shaping the efficiency and competitiveness of casting processes. Innovations in casting techniques, Moreover, the integration of automation and smart manufacturing technologies enhances precision and reduces lead times, the non-adoption of such technology may have an adverse effect on our ability to manufacture our products as per requirement of customer preference.

Significant Developments after October 31, 2023 that may affect our Future Results of Operations

The Directors confirm that there have been no other events or circumstances since the date of the last financial statements as disclosed in the Prospectus which materially or adversely affect or is likely to affect the business or profitability of our Company or the value of our assets, or our ability to pay liabilities within next twelve months.

Illustration of the Book Building and Price Discovery Process: Bidders should note that this example is solely for illustrative purposes and is not specific to the Issue, it also excludes Bidding by Anchor Investors. Bidders can bid at any price within the Price Band. For instance, assume a Price Band of ₹20 to ₹24 per share, Issue size of 3,000 Equity Shares and receipt of five Bids from Bidders, details of which are shown in the table below. The illustrative book given below shows the demand for the Equity Shares of the Issuer at various prices and is collated from Bids received from various investors.

Bid Quantity	Bid Amount (₹)	Cumulative Quantity	Subscription
500	24	500	16.67%
1,000	23	1,500	50.00%
1,500	22	3,000	100.00%
2,000	21	5,000	166.67%
2,500	20	7,500	250.00%

The price discovery is a function of demand at various prices. The highest price at which the Issuer is able to Issue the desired number of Equity Shares is the price at which the book cuts off, i.e., ₹22.00 in the above example. The Issuer, in consultation with the BRLM, may finalise the Issue Price at or below such Cut-Off Price, i.e., at or below ₹22.00. All Bids at or above this Issue Price and cut-off Bids are valid Bids and are considered for allocation in the respective categories.

RESTRICTIONS ON FOREIGN OWNERSHIP OF INDIAN SECURITIES

Foreign investment in Indian securities is regulated through the Industrial Policy, 1991 of the Government of India and Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 (“FEMA”). While the Industrial Policy, 1991 prescribes the limits and the conditions subject to which foreign investment can be made in different sectors of the Indian economy, FEMA regulates the precise manner in which such investment may be made. Under the Industrial Policy, unless specifically restricted, foreign investment is freely permitted in all sectors of Indian economy up to any extent and without any prior approvals, but the foreign investor is required to follow certain prescribed procedures for making such investment. The government bodies responsible for granting foreign investment approvals are the Reserve Bank of India (“RBI”) and Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India (“DIPP”).

The Government of India, from time to time, has made policy pronouncements on Foreign Direct Investment (“FDI”) through press notes and press releases. The Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India (“DIPP”), has issued consolidated FDI Policy Circular of 2017 (“FDI Policy 2017”), which with effect from August 28, 2017, consolidates and supersedes all previous press notes, press releases and clarifications on FDI Policy issued by the DIPP that were in force. The Government proposes to update the consolidated circular on FDI policy once every year and therefore, FDI Policy 2017 will be valid until the DIPP issues an updated circular. The RBI also issues Master Circular on Foreign Investment in India every year. Presently, FDI in India is being governed by Master Circular on Foreign Investment dated July 01, 2015 as updated from time to time by RBI. In terms of the Master Circular, an Indian company may issue fresh shares to people resident outside India (who is eligible to make investments in India, for which eligibility criteria are as prescribed). Such fresh issue of shares shall be subject to inter-alia, the pricing guidelines prescribed under the Master Circular. The Indian company making such fresh issue of shares would be subject to the reporting requirements, inter-alia with respect to consideration for issue of shares and also subject to making certain filings including filing of Form FC-GPR.

Under the current FDI Policy of 2017, foreign direct investment in micro and small enterprises is subject to sectoral caps, entry routes and other sectoral regulations. At present 100 % foreign direct investment through automatic route is permitted in the sector in which our Company operates. Therefore, applicable foreign investment up to 100% is permitted in our company under automatic route.

In case of investment in sectors through Government Route approval from competent authority as mentioned in Chapter 4 of the FDI Policy 2017 has to be obtained by the Company. The transfer of shares between an Indian resident to a non-resident does not require the prior approval of the RBI, subject to fulfilment of certain conditions as specified by DIPP/RBI, from time to time. Such conditions include: (i) where the transfer of shares requires the prior approval of the Government as per the extant FDI policy provided that: a) the requisite approval of the Government has been obtained; and b) the transfer of shares adheres with the pricing guidelines and documentation requirements as specified by the Reserve Bank of India from time to time.; (ii) where the transfer of shares attract SEBI (SAST) Regulations subject to the adherence with the pricing guidelines and documentation requirements as specified by reserve Bank of India from time to time.; (iii) where the transfer of shares does not meet the pricing guidelines under the FEMA, 1999 provided that: a) The resultant FDI is in compliance with the extant FDI policy and FEMA regulations in terms of sectoral caps, conditionalities (such as minimum capitalization, etc.), reporting requirements, documentation etc.; b) The pricing for the transaction is compliant with the specific/explicit, extant and relevant SEBI regulations/guidelines (such as IPO, Book building, block deals, delisting, exit, open offer/substantial acquisition/SEBI SAST); and Chartered Accountants Certificate to the effect that compliance with the relevant SEBI regulations/guidelines as indicated above is attached to the form FC-TRS to be filed with the AD bank and iv) where the investee company is in the financial sector provided that: a) Any ‘fit and proper/due diligence’ requirements as regards the non-resident investor as stipulated by the respective financial sector regulator, from time to time, have been complied with; and b) The FDI policy and FEMA regulations in terms of sectoral caps, conditionalities (such as minimum capitalization, pricing, etc.), reporting requirements, documentation etc., are complied with. As per the existing policy of the Government of India, OCBs cannot participate in this Issue and in accordance with the extant FDI guidelines on sectoral caps, pricing guidelines etc. as amended by Reserve bank of India, from time to time. Investors are advised to confirm their eligibility under the relevant laws before investing and / or subsequent purchase or sale transaction in the Equity Shares of Our Company.
